“ Helen, Paul and family. It saddens me to hear of your mom’s passing. I will always remember her with my fond memories growing up on Jay Street. She was a lovely lady. It was she who introduced me to grilled cheese sandwiches. Please accept my deepest condolences at this sad time. May she rest in peace.

“ To the Mangano family with special thoughts of my friend Rosemary

Remembering the good times we had on Dudley Ave. Your mom was always interested in our lives, good food and lots of laughs. Millie, Ro and myself would stop by Bergers every Saturday to say "hi" to her. Such a kind caring person.

RIP with those who have gone before you.

“ Helen, Paul and family. I remember growing up on Jay street and the fun we all had growing up . Your mom and her beautiful smile, kind words always made me feel welcome. Our families were very close , to this day I still consider you and a dear friend. My mom stayed in touch with your mom, and I can remember taking her to see your mom , such a wonderful friendship they shared. My family and I send our deepest sympathies to you and your family. It isn't easy losing siblings or parents from personal experience. Hold on to the memories you shared, she will live on in your heart. May she now find eternal peace.

“ Although I never met Antoinette in person, I felt like I knew her. What a beautiful lady she was. While my husband was going through his terrible illness with cancer, she was praying for him daily. I will never forget her.
I am sure she is with God now and some day I will get that chance to meet her in heaven.
RIP Antoinette.
