

Addison Marie Fasolo

October 29, 2007 - April 15, 2008

Addison Marie “Addy Girl” Fasolo, age 5 months, of Marcy, became an angel on Tuesday, April 15, 2008 when she passed away at University Hospital in Syracuse from complications of Spinal Muscular Atrophy.

Born in New Hartford on October 29, 2007, Addison is the daughter of Marc C. and Joelle M. (Delahunt) Fasolo. Addy was born with an angelic personality, a brave and strong soul, a smile that embraced her whole face, and big blue eyes, which told the story of her life. She was a cuddler who loved to be moved around the house in her bouncy seat. Two of her favorite things to do were to watch Max & Ruby and listen while her parents read to them; these were special times spent with her big sister Emma, who she adored. She was excited to hear her best-loved rhymes ‘patty-cake, patty-cake’, and ‘itsy-bitsy spider’. Addy could dance in your arms and the tonation of her voice was so descriptive. But bath time with “Gram” was the greatest for free-spirited Addy Girl, because it was a time when she could move freely.

This beautiful baby was the greatest love to her parents as they came to accept her illness and knew her as a blessing and gift from the Lord. She will always be a part of her family’s heart, and they know that she is now running, playing, dancing, and breathing easy. This short life has taught so many people to be thankful and happy for good health and the simple things in life, and to share in the awareness of the sacred power of prayer offered by so many. Addison was baptized into the Catholic faith at Our Lady of the Rosary Church.

Addison is survived by her devoted parents, Marc and Joelle, who have been pillars of strength to one another; her best big sister, Emma Marie Fasolo, and her beloved dog “Toby” who was always by her side; her dedicated and compassionate grandparents, Richard “Dick” Sr. and Annette Delahunt, and Michael Sr. and Phyllis Fasolo, all of whom knew the blessing of being Addy’s godparents as well; her great-grandparents, Stella Smith, and Phil Vennero and his friend Tina DeSarro; her aunts and uncles, Richard Jr. and Jacqueline Delahunt, John and Rebecca Delahunt, Michael and Mandy Delahunt, Michael, Jr. and Terri Fasolo, Rachel and Michael Rogers, Phil and Nicole Fasolo, and Phyllis and Brian Saville; her great-aunts, great-uncles, and cousins. The family appreciated the trust and willingness of Joelle’s cousin, Jackie Garguglio who was the only person outside of the immediate family who baby sat Addy. Addison was predeceased by her paternal great-grandparents and family, Rachel Vennero, and Victor and Philomena Fasolo; a great-uncle, Claude DeMetri; and cousin Emily Rose Majka; maternal great-grandparents and family, Erma and Joe Salerno, John Smith, Thomas and Jeanette Delahunt; uncle, Robert Smith; cousin, Thomas Gargulio; and family friends, Don Golden, and Josephine Parzych.

The family is grateful to Dr. Rehka John of the Slocum-Dickson Medical Group, Addy’s primary physician and a loving, caring, and compassionate friend and professional; Dr. Kevin Rogasta, University Hospital, for his endless personal support and attentiveness and whose guidance was a true blessing; and Dr. Melissa Gorczynski, Marc’s cousin who was of great professional attendance. A special thank you to the PICU nurses, especially Nathalia Vergara and Rev. Louis Shepard. Marc and Joelle are so grateful to their parents and their entire support group of family, friends, and co-workers; without all of them, they could not have cared for Addy with the necessary grace and style. A thank-you is also extended to the Faxton-St. Luke’s Healthcare Center Endoscopy Unit, Dr. Mirza, and the Digestive Disease Medicine Unit for their generosity. And special, special thanks to Emma, for being the greatest “big sister”.

Visitation will be held at the convenience of the family. By family request, please omit floral offerings. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Addy's Mass of the Angels which will be celebrated on Saturday morning at 9:00 at Our Lady of the Rosary Church. The family will receive visitors at the conclusion of the service. For those wishing to do so, please consider memorial donations in Addison's honor to the Pediatrics Unit at University Hospital; envelopes will be available at the service. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc. 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave.

“ Marc & Joelle: Words can not express how deeply sorry I am for you. Your sweet precious Addison is now an angel in heaven who was lucky in her short life to have a wonderful loving family to care for her and love her. I know that family will also give you both and Addison's sister the strength and love to get through the coming days. Be comforted in knowing Addison is resting peacefully and it was your strength and love that let her do so - everytime you see a penny on the street - think that your little angel dropped it there from heaven to let you know she will always love you, Love: Aunt Karen###imported-begin###Karen Frosh###imported-end##

there are no words to excpress my grief for you. I want you to know that my love and my thoughts are with you always and that my arms hugging you now. this is a very private time and want to leave it to you and your family. There is no way to say it other than god has very special plans for addy and he granted you this short time with her because he wanted her to feel your love and you hers. Please know that god does not do these things to cause us pain and there is no pain where addy has gone. I have watched you grow into a marvelous lovely mother and wife and I am very proud of you. You are a precious person and god knows that you can handle this and that is why you were chosen to be her mother. Not to have you suffer the lose but to let you enjoy the joy while she was with you. Please know that I am here whenever and if ever you need me. Just call and I will be there in seconds. Love you and all your family very much and my thoughts will always be with you. Give emme an extra hug today and think of me.

“ Joelle, Marc, and Emma, you guys are forever in my prayers. I love you all so much. Words cannot describe the lessons in life that we were all taught by our little Addy girl. We will remember her in our every tomorrow and someday we will meet again. She couldn't have asked for a better family to bring her into this world. She loved you all very much and showed it in every smile. She will forever hold a special place in my heart. “ Tiny Angels

*Tiny Angels rest your wings sit with me for awhile.
How I long to hold your hand,
And see your tender smile.
Tiny Angel, look at me,
I want this image clear....
That I will forget your precious face
Is my biggest fear.
Tiny Angel can you tell me,
Why you have gone away?
You weren't here for very long....
Why is it, you couldn't stay?
Tiny Angel shook his head,
"These things I do not know....
But I do know that you love me,
And that I love you so".*

“ Sweet Addy,

You will forever be the warmest spring breeze, the calmest ocean wave, the most beautiful field of flowers, the softest summer rain and the brightest star.

It'll be your light that will lead us all to be with you in Heaven. Where we know you are free from your captive body and playing, running and smiling your beautiful smile. A smile you always shared from the day you were born until the day you left us.

We will forever see and feel your smile and smile back because we know you are in a better place surrounded by love.

We will miss you and love you forever.

“ Joelle & Marc

I'm so very sorry to hear about Addison. She was so beautiful and full of life. I thoroughly enjoyed working with her and I finally got a few smiles from her on my last visit. I hope you are finding strength in knowing that she can now move about freely and will be eternally happy and healthy. I wish I could be there to pay my respects to Addison in person, but I am out of town. My deepest sympathies extend to you and your family.

Sincerely,

“ The Lord fills our hearts with blessings upon hearing the laughter of little children.

To every person a purpose is given - and when completed, we are called home to the presence of Jesus. There, our comfort and joy is magnified and we shine in the glory of Christ's love. No tears, no pain - those things are reserved for us on earth.

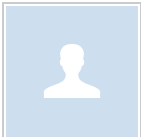

No one is removed forever from us - they live in our hearts and minds. Their memory strengthens us when we despair. Fear not the loss of love, for it waits for us and grows stronger. One day it will pour upon us again and we will receive it gladly. Those who left before us will greet us with open arms and smiles. Again we will hear the laughter of little children.

God Bless your family in your time of trial.

Soli Deo Gloria

“ Remembering Addison & Remembering You

*I thought of Addison today, but that is nothing new.
I thought of Addison yesterday,
and will tomorrow too.*

*And I also think of you as well,
even though you make no outward show.
For what it means to lose a child,
unfortunately I truly know.*

*Remembering Addison will be easy,
she was such a special joy each day.
But I will remember your heartache as well,
which I know will never go away.*

*Time will ease the pain you feel,
although, not right away.
Remember the time you had together,
for you will see each other again someday.*

You are in our hearts and prayers. Maria (NDS) & Gabriel Otero
