“ Dear mom, Thank you for being a great mother-in-law. It was so hard to part, but I know you are at peace now. Thank you for raising a great son. He loved you so very very much and I know you knew that. I was so happy to see you so happy at Easter. You enjoyed your dinner so much and I enjoyed watching you eat all the foods you loved. That is what well keep us going, all the good times we had together.

Rest in peace

Love

“ Dear Jim & Phyllis,
I am truly sorry for your loss and I hope that your wonderful memories of Addy will help console you. We will certainly all miss her on the Albany household and although life will go on she will never be forgotten. She was and inspiration to others because of her strength and will to live even on her bad days when we knew she wasn't feeling well, she wouldn't give in. We will miss seeing you both on a regular basis and I hope you do come in to visit as you said you would. I know it will be difficult at first, but I'm sure Addy will guide you and smile down from Heaven. Take care of yourselves....
