“ I remember many nights jumping on a neighbors trampoline with Alex as teenagers almost twenty years ago, always telling me about Chicago.

She was such a free-spirit, I'm glad to know that never stopped.
Rest in peace Alex.

“ Alex,

It's still a shock to know that you are gone. Although it's comforting to know you are now resting and at peace. Your pain and suffering has been wiped away and your free spirit can continue to be free! You left us way too soon with still so much to accomplish in this troubled world we live in. You had a heart of gold, a soul filled with love and smile that can fill a room.

Today I said goodbye to you knowing I will see you again, but for now I will remember your addictive personality, bubbly sense of humor and all the love you always gave. I was truly blessed to have you in my life and I will always remember you. I love you more than words can describe. Have fun with G and see you on the flip side!

Love always,
