

Alice F. Maggio

April 28, 1928 - March 6, 2006

Alice F. Maggio passed away March 6, 2006 after a courageous battle with diabetes. She was born Alice Bazydlo on April 28, 1928 in Utica, NY, attending local schools, and in 1946 she married Daniel F. Maggio. Alice was an enormously successful fund raiser for the PTA at St. Patrick's School and later she joined St Joseph-St. Patrick parish. She managed her own commercial and residential cleaning business for many years. Alice had a great love for travel, particularly driving the country roads of the Northeast. Her cooking was legendary. Alice's lasagna AND her pierogi were arguably the best, and everyone was warmly welcomed in her home to "eat, eat." In 1971 she was predeceased by her husband. Alice was a devoted wife and mother. She is survived by her loving children, Sandra and her husband, Anthony Aurience, Attorney, Daniel, and his wife, Annette Amiraian-Maggio, Samuel, David and his wife, Rebecca, Cynthia and her husband, Dr. Dan Carr, and Steven and his wife, Peggy. Alice is also survived by her loving grandchildren, great-grandchild, nieces and nephews, in-laws and friends. Calling hours at Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave., are 5-8 p.m. on Thursday, March 8. Funeral services are Friday at 10 a.m. from the funeral home and at 11 a.m. at St Joseph-St Patrick Church. Interment will be at the convenience of the family.
