Angela F. Pezzorello, age 96, formerly of 604 Mohawk Street, her family homestead, and more recently a resident of St. Joseph Nursing Home, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, June 10, 2009 at the facility.

Born in Utica on October 4, 1912, Angela was the daughter of the late Francesco and Marie Domenica "Ann" (Fiore) Pezzorello. She earned her high school equivalency diploma in her 50's and then attended the Utica School of Commerce where she studied shorthand and typing.

For many years, Angela was employed as a store clerk at Neisner's and Berger's, and for several years she worked for the Utica City Election Polls, until her health declined. Many generations of loved ones knew her kind-hearted ways. She found much joy in gardening, from her flower garden to her favorite vegetable garden. She also enjoyed knitting and crocheting. Angela was devoted to her Catholic faith and was honored when she met the Most Rev. Bishop Robert Cunningham as he blessed her upon his visit to the St. Joseph Nursing Home. She was a communicant of St. Mary of Mt. Carmel/Blessed Sacrament Parish.
