Mrs. Angeline E. (Alouisa) Giorgi, age 79, of New Hartford, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, October 16, 2008 in the comfort of her home. She was also committed to the good works of Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc. She was a parishioner of Our Lady of the Rosary Church. Angeline is survived by her daughters and son-in-law, Deborah A. and Colin J. Hill, and Mary Terese Bostic, all of Whitesboro; her grandchildren, Lisa and

Mark Scanlon of New Hartford, Lance and Kelly Hill of Whitesboro, Lori and Matt DeSimone of FL, Danielle Lieberman of Clifton Park, NY, Brandi Bostic, and Brett Bostic, both of Whitesboro; and her great-grandchildren, Kendal Scanlon, Emma Scanlon, Jake Hill, Dylan Lieberman, and the anticipated birth of 2 great-grandchildren. Angeline derived great satisfaction and pleasure through the relationships she shared with all of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Survivors also include her nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, especially acknowledging Margaret Calabrese; her in-laws, Lucy and Anthony Ruggiero of CA, and Antoinette Giorgi of Whitesboro; her many special friends; and her feline friend, Pumpkin. She was predeceased by her sister, Felicia Gomes; her brother-in-law, Angelo T. Giorgi; and a special friend, Richard M. Nasbe.

“ I worked with Ang since last April (2007) and thru that I can remember a lot of things. I can remember her enthusiam about a lot of things. She loved her job, she most certainly loved life, but most of all she loved her family. Every Monday she would enlighten me about her weekend with her family. Didn't matter, her children, her grandchildren, (but the little ones) damn she was always excited about the "little ones". You were all the greatest to Ang but she could not help but brag about being a "Great" grandma. And u'r right, her cooking was the best (not because I had it - but because she said so) and I believed her, I truly believed her (she's italian - how could you not???), The last time I seen Ang was Weds morn ( I had a family emergency) and from what I hear SHE was wondering how I was. GO FIGURE. I miss Ang, she was a terrific lady. There is no doubt she loved her family, but u know, she loved everybody. I know this because she'd walk by my desk every morning and tell me how beautiful my daughter was, she'd tell me (and she did on Tuesday afternoon) how she'd known my daughter - thru pictures - as if she was one of hers (tho every little one was "one of hers"). Just like Ang to love, well Ang was (is) loved, and most certainly missed. She truly was a matraich and (damn it) I miss her. MAY GOD BE WITH U ANG... GOD BLESS ... I MISS U ... WITH LOVE, Robin###imported-begin###Robin L. Trevor###imported-end###

“ Working with Angie for the past few years gives me so many good memories, she was the only one who could make me laugh when I didn't feel like I was having a good day. She was so caring and giving. I will miss her smiling face and presence in our office for a long time. We love you.##imported-begin##Becky Klotz##imported-end##

“ Deb and family,

I am so sorry for your loss. It really is not the same here at Fraternal without her. She loved you all so much and would proudly show us pictures every chance she got. She was amazed at how strong you are Deb and it is now your turn to be the rock. This is a saying from John Burroughs that I think sums up how much Ang loved life-

I still find each day too short for all the thoughts I want to think, all the walks I want to take, all the books I want to read, and all the friends I want to see. The longer I live, the more my mind dwells upon the beauty and the wonder of the world.##imported-begin##Wendy Baldanza##imported-end##

“ Dear MaryTeresa, Debbie & Family

We were saddened to read of the passing of your mother.

I worked with Angie at Met. We corresponded every Christmas.

The last time we saw Angie was at Hanna Park. She was tapping her toes to the music, sitting in her monogrammed chair. Angie did enjoy her music.

Fond memories of your Mom will help to ease your sorrow.

“ Dear Debbie and Mary Terese--I was so sad to hear of your MOM's passing. She was truly a loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. I know that you will miss her, but her legacy through her children will live on. She ALWAYS greeted me with a smile and cared so much for both of you. She never looked a day older than when I had seen her from the previous time -- which is something that I always commented on. She was forever young; you both have great genes!! The days ahead will be difficult but you have each other and so many friends to get you through. Love and deep regards to both of you. She is your special angel up in heaven now SMILING down at both of you. You can still talk to her every day and I'm sure that she will listen and guide you through the difficult times. May God bless you and your families and your "beautiful" mother. With love, Mary and Bob Francis (from Florida).##imported-begin##Mary Francis##imported-end##

“ Dear Debbie and Mary Terese.....I am so deeply saddened by the unexpected death of your Mom. As you know, we lived next door to each other for many years, were good friends. I will treasure the memories.

I apologize for not being able to attend the services. I am on life support due to the chemical exposure I suffered while working for Met Life.

I spoke with her not too long along when our other high school and neighborhood friend, Roey Girard Cerri, passed away.

We shared many laughs and good times.

May God give you and your families the strength to get through a difficult time.

Love you all.
