

Mr. Angelo V. Nole

August 20, 1934 - November 20, 2014

Mr. Angelo V. Nole, age 80, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, November 20, 2014 at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center. At the time of his death he was in the presence and the hearts of those who love him.

He was born on August 20, 1934, a son of the late George A. and Virginia A. (Taverne) Nole. A graduate of T.R. Proctor High School, he also served as a Reservist for the US Navy Seebecs. On June 18, 1955 he married the former Angela Melchiorre; they shared a loving marriage that was filled with family and friends.

Angelo was the president of George A. Nole & Son, Inc., a prominent general contracting company formed by his father in 1945. Angelo joined the business in 1950 as an apprentice brick layer, and in 1966 the word "Son" was added to the company name. He leaves a legacy of many landmark buildings. As quoted by Angelo, "We don't have bricklayers. We have craftsmen who lay bricks". His many diverse friendships exemplified his workmanship – they were built on strong foundations and lasted a lifetime. He was sensitive to the needs of others, had an infectious smile, and was a mentor to many. He was a member and generous supporter of countless social and civic groups. He was a longtime parishioner of the former St. Agnes Church and practiced his faith at the Utica College Newman Center. He was also a communicant of St. Mary of Mt. Carmel/Blessed Sacrament Parish.

Angelo is survived by his wife, Angela; his daughter and son-in-law, Virginia and Thomas Dosch of Clinton; and his son and daughter-in-law, Angelo, Jr. and Diana L. Nole of Pittsford, NY. Always close to his heart was the memory of his son, George, who passed away in 1975. He also leaves his beloved grandchildren, Caitlin, Christopher, and Laura Dosch; his sisters and brothers-in-law, Marie and Joseph Donovan, and Connie and Eugene Corasanti; his cherished nephews, nieces, great-nephews, great-nieces, cousins, an aunt, Millie Digironimo; in-laws, Nunzio Melchiorre, Lucy and Sydney "Sid" Segal, Jane Melchiorre, Rosemary Melchiorre, and Peter Greco; and many lifelong friends. He was predeceased by his in-laws, Guy and Virginia Melchiorre, Daniel and Ann Melchiorre, Faustine Melchiorre, Cosmo "Red" Melchiorre, Frank and Anna Melchiorre, Alfred and Carolyn Melchiorre, Joseph Melchiorre, Marie Dolores Greco, Angelo Melchiorre, Jr., and Orrie Polacelli.

The family extends a special thanks to the doctors and nurses of the St. Elizabeth Medical Center, especially the 4th Floor staff who provided kind and heartfelt care to Angelo; and Fr. Paul Drobin for his friendship and spiritual inspiration.

Visitation will be held on Monday from 3:00-7:00 at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, 2222 Genesee Street, Utica.

Family and friends are invited to attend Angelo's Mass of Christian Burial which will commence on Tuesday morning at 10:30 at St. Mary of Mt. Carmel/Blessed Sacrament Parish, 648 Jay Street, Utica.

Memorial contributions may be considered to the George A. Nole, II Scholarship Fund at Notre Dame High School, United Cerebral Palsy, The Newman Center at Utica College, or the Stevens Swan Humane Society; envelopes will be available at the church service.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc. 932
South St., corner of Hammond Ave.

“ Dear Angela, Ginny and Angelo,
I discovered quite by accident about Angelo's death. I send you my prayers for the difficult journey through grief that now awaits you. In my many years as a Priest I have stood with many families as they tried to deal with the death of someone they loved. It is always hard and so I send you my prayers . Know that Angelo is now ok even as everyone else is not ok. But he is on the other side now with George. Maybe they can help you from where they are. I don't know how it works but I know it works. So ask for the help you need. I remember all of you so well. In fact on my office door I have hung a framed copy of letters you once sent me while I was in the seminary. Ginny and Angelo and even George wrote. Precious. Sorry I can't be with you but you will be in my thoughts and prayers tomorrow when I celebrate Mass.

Love,
Fr.Chuck Lochner (Chuckie)

“ Angela, Ginny, Angelo

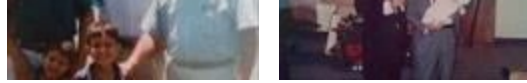

Words cannot describe how sorry I am to hear of Angelo's sudden passing. I am having a tough time, but I know it's harder for all of you. I had a special relationship with Angelo. As a kid, most kids had Super Heroes or people they wanted to be like. Mine was Angie Nole. When I was growing up in Utica, and was out with Angelo, we couldn't pass anywhere without him shaking hands or saying a Hello to someone.

I remember getting into a debate with my classmates about who had the biggest and best construction company. This led to a fist fight.....But it was all worth it to defend my HERO. I had Nole pens, stickers, hats, and wore them PROUDLY. When I would meet Angelo, he always made me feel special. When it came time for my Confirmation, Angelo honored me in becoming my Godfather. I remember being in church that day, saying to myself, I have Angelo Nole as my Godfather! Some years later I moved to Florida. When Angelo was in town, he always made an effort to see me. Of course I would drop everything I was doing to see him. First we had to start off at The Elbo Room in Ft. Lauderdale and have a drink for Uncle George. Through the years I got married, my first Son arrived. Well, I had to honor him with the name of two of the most important figures in my life, Angelo & My Father. Again, I asked Angelo to be a Godfather again. This time to my Son. I would tell my son about his Godfather, so maybe he could be a little like him. Growing up in Florida, was a different place than Utica. A few years ago, Angelo visited me at my business. He pulled me aside and said, I'm very proud of you. I didn't know what to say. Coming from him.....WoW! We are going to miss him so much! That Big Heart, that smile! It could light up any room!

WE LOVE YOU!

So sorry for your loss,
We have been honored to know Angelo for only 16 short years, but it feels like a lifetime. We all feel that we have lost our best friend, and have.
His work ethic and drive were 2nd to none, nor was his compassion to help anybody who needed it.
He will be greatly missed by everybody, Truly an amazing person.

“ Mrs. Nole, Ginny, and Angelo -

Mr. Nole is one of the finest human beings, grand gentleman, and generous givers within the Greater Utica community that I am blessed to know since we all first met those long ago grammar school days at St. Agnes School as I and three of my six siblings attended school together.

Of course, Angela, my wonderful mother cherished her friendship with you upon meeting in the 1960s, as you both became CCD teachers for several years. She always admired your enduring faith, courage, charisma, strength, and generosity. Me and my family were comforted by your presence at her funeral Mass in January 2011.

Do know that your dear husband, father, grandfather's 'physical presence' is merely absent, yet his spirit shall be with each of you throughout your life's journey. This moment in your lives is not "goodbye." Rather, it is "farewell" because our Faith teaches us that you will indeed see him again someday. And, oh, how you will all laugh at the sight!

Peace and blessings aplenty during this difficult time.

“ To Angela and your extended family. We were shocked this morning upon hearing that your gentleman husband and father passed from body to spirit. We extend our sympathies to you on this great loss. Angie was a local legend and icon and will be missed by all that knew him, though he leaves a huge void in his family. He is now safe harbored beyond all sorrows' reach, beyond the mists of pain and suffering and human tears. May his memory be eternal.

To the Nole Family:

When I think of my uncle, the first image that comes to mind is his beautiful smile that could light up any situation. Behind the smile was a generous heart overflowing with compassion and thoughtfulness. His zest for life was unmatched. Angelo was a wonderful uncle whose presence enriched my life.

Rest in peace, Uncle Angelo.

*Angelo Nole is best described by his love of life, his family and his heritage. Family was everything to him. The delight he took in each and every member showed in his infectious, open hearted smile. This love and loyalty had no boundaries. He especially paid attention to the young generation. These feelings were extended from his immediate family to his many cousins and dear friends. Planning picnic, luncheon, and dinner parties was one gesture of his generosity. Last August, we convened at Cafe CaNole for a festive meal. Angelo and his wife Angela have always been the keepers of the family history from the Kossuth and Catherine conclave of relatives. At this gathering, Angelo told tales of his father and uncles during the Depression years. Laughter filled the resaurant---what joy in the telling and receiving of news of the good old days. Angelo shined when recalling these stories; he helped us to connect to our past. He yearly continued the Nole-Italian tradition of making sausage in oil, which he labeled, The Best." That label accurately sums up how we feel about Ang. With love, Your Cousins*
