Born in Utica on April 4, 1946, to the late Salvatore and Philomena “Fannie” (DeStefano) Pedone, Angelo was raised and educated locally a graduate of T.R. Proctor High School.

Angelo was blessed to share 24 wonderful years with the love of his life, Renee (Houle) Gulisano. Their years together were filled with a mutual, boundless love and devotion, and culminated in a blessed celebration of marriage. Angelo was a fantastic husband!

Angelo was both opinionated and strong, but he always was well-liked for his loving nature and his humility.

Angelo had several favorite pastimes, the first of which revolved around shopping and secondhand treasures. He loved to frequent garage sales and even took pride in his own annual garage sales, which he eagerly hosted.

Angelo truly loved to shop and was an avid bargain hunter. He also collected watches. Additionally, when Angelo took vacations with his wife, he especially treasured the times spent together. Angelo believed in the Catholic Creed. Angelo is survived by his wife, Renee; his daughter and son-in-law, Stephanie and Tom Pavlot; his sons and daughters-in-law, Ryan and Hayley Pedone, and Michael and Kayleigh Pedone; his step-daughter, Angela Gulisano-Baker and her husband Chris; and his step-sons, Anthony "A.J." and wife Elizabeth Gulisano, and Christopher and wife Kelly Gulisano.
