April 9, 1914 - January 11, 2007

Mrs. Ann (Tocco) Leone, formerly of Deerfield and currently a resident of the Heritage Healthcare Center, passed away on Thursday, January 11, 2007, at the home.

Born in Frankfort, NY on April 9, 1914, Ann was the daughter of the late Joseph and Florence (Rampolla) Tocco. She was raised and educated in Frankfort. On April 18, 1953 she was married to Gennaro J. "Gene" Leone, with whom she shared a union of almost 44 years until his passing on March 18, 1997. Their life together was focused on a devotion to their home, involvement in family activities, and enjoyment of traveling.

At one time, Ann was employed by the General Electric Co., at the Bleecker St. and French Rd. locations. She subsequently worked at the Boston Store, where she managed the greeting card department until her retirement. Graced with a domestic refinement, she kept a meticulous home. In her earlier years, she loved to garden and incorporated the fruits of her harvest into her delicious home cooked meals. A loving and giving woman, she could be depended upon to care for other family members when needed. Ann was devoted to her favorite saints and her recitation of the rosary and was a communicant of St. Mary of Mt. Carmel/Blessed Sacrament Parish.

Ann is survived by her brother and sister-in-law, Sam and Sadie Tocco of Frankfort. Aunt Ann was a special person to many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews. In addition, she leaves several cousins. She was predeceased by her brothers and sisters: James Tocco, Clara DiMaggio, Mary

Cimino, Josephine Parisi, and Florence Sparagna.
