

Ann Marie (Caruso) Killino

September 30, 1939 - December 5, 2011

Ann Marie (Caruso) Killino, age 72, of Clinton and formerly of Utica, passed in peace into Gods arms on Monday, December 5, 2011 at Lutheran Care.

Born in Utica on September 30, 1939, Ann was the daughter of the late Peter and Edith (Pietrantuono) Caruso. Raised and educated locally, she was a graduate of Utica Catholic Academy. Ann worked for H & R Block for many years, from its inception in the Utica area until retiring as a District Manager in 1990. Ann was blessed with a keen, compassionate, and humorous nature and instilled the value of family in her loved ones. She was a very strong individual and never complained about the hand she was dealt. She enjoyed simple pleasures like baking, crafting, reading and shopping. A favorite pastime was sharing a cup of tea with friends. She was a member of the Zonta Club, and at one time, was a volunteer at Hospice. She was a parishioner of St. Anthony & St. Agnes Church.

Ann is survived by her daughter, Lisa M. Killino of Utica; her son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Gina Killino of Marcy; her grandchildren, Michael C. and Ginelle Killino, and Jenalle N. Killino; and her great-grandchild, Landon Michael Killino. Also left to mourn her passing are her sister and brother-in-law, Civita and Thomas Brown of New Hartford; her brother and sister-in-law, Peter and Liz Caruso of Utica; many nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends Roc and Sue DiPierro and their family. She was predeceased by her aunts and uncles, Olympia "Beba" and Bill McAleese, Joseph F. and Marie Pietrantuono, Antoinette and Nicholas Guyleanella, and Mary E. and Fred Frontera.

The family sends a heartfelt tribute to Amy Forrester, Kristen Dempsey and the staff of the Willow Way Unit at Lutheran Care for their compassion and care over the years.

Visitation will be held Wednesday from 5:00-7:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South Street, corner of Hammond Ave. By family request, please omit floral offerings. Expressions of sympathy in the form of donations may be made to Lutheran Care. Ann's funeral service and Celebration of Life will commence on Thursday morning at 10:30 at St. Anthony & St. Agnes Church where her Mass of Christian Burial will be offered.

“ Lisa,
I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing.....Her battle was fought with courage and dignity. May she now rest in peace and enjoy an honored seat at the table of our "Heavenly Father". What a testament of "motherhood" when a child is so devoted and caring. May you now rest easy my friend knowing that you fulfilled the "dream" of any parent through your indomitable and compassionate spirit.
