“ Uncle Anthony, I'm thinking of you today as this would have been your 80th birthday. I'm sure you're having a great celebration with your parents (my great grandparents) and siblings who passed years before you did. Your are missed and I will always remember your birthday because my granddaughter Kayla was born on your birthday! Love your great-niece, Donna Marie

“ Sam and Family,
Please accept my condolences for the passing of Uncle Anthony. He inspired me to learn how to play the accordion. He tried so hard to convince me to enlist in the Navy, and I think he was disappointed when I enlisted in the Marines. I regret I was not in the area to attend his military funeral. He always made my Mother laugh so much when he visited us on Catherine St. He gave me a puppy for my eighteenth birthday, 16 July 1966 and he stopped by often to see how the puppy had grown and to see if I was taking good care of it. I have so many great and cherished memories of Uncle Anthony. I was in high school when Grandma passed away, but I remember how devastated he was after her passing.
He became lost without Grandma and he began distant from the family soon after her passing.
In my eyes and heart, Uncle Anthony was a devoted son, a great man and a great uncle.
Cousin,
John C. Valenti

“ Rest in Peace Uncle Anthony. May your soul be reunited with the souls of your parents and siblings. May God bless Sam, Vera and Jonathan as you grieve and deal with the true significance of the loss of a family member. Uncle Anthony, in your own little way, have been a part of my life experience. Thank you. May God bless you and all those who have known you.

“ To the Valenti family, we would just like to say that Tony lived like he died....Alone. There will be no public viewing hours or calling hours, he will eventually be buried in Saratoga National Cemetery, we apologize for any discord that this may cause the family, we can not accommodate anyone's need for closure. Closure can only be truly gotten when someone is alive not when they are gone. We were not close with Tony as were none of you, if you have any questions please feel free to email us at samveravalenti@gmail.com. We mean no disrespect and we offer our condolences to you all.
Thank You,
Sam and Vera Valenti
