

Barbara Jean (Exline) Taylor

March 27, 1942 - May 15, 2006

Ms. Barbara Jean (Exline) Taylor, age 64, of Herkimer, NY, died on Monday, May 15, 2006, at Mary Imogene Bassett Healthcare Facility with her family by her side.

Born in Utica on March 27, 1942, Barbara was the daughter of the late William G. and Elizabeth (Fisher) Exline. Mrs. Taylor was educated locally, graduating from T.R. Proctor High School and the Utica School of Commerce. Barbara was at one time married to George J. Taylor whom she wed in 1964.

Employed for a time by Mohawk Containers, Mrs. Taylor most recently worked for the Walmart Corporation.

Barbara's favorite pastimes included knitting, bowling, and movies. An important accomplishment for Mrs. Taylor was the completion of her studies at the Utica School of Commerce in 1982. Most notable and rewarding in her life, however, was the joy of raising her children and participating in the growth and development of her grandchildren and great-grandchild. Barbara was a good natured woman who dealt with everyone in a positive and accepting way. Among her attributes were a selfless character, an open heart, and a strong work ethic. As a woman who would "walk a country mile" for anyone, Barbara was the cornerstone of her family.

Mrs. Taylor is survived by her friend and former husband George J. Taylor, Sr.; a daughter, Charlene M. Taylor of Herkimer; 4 sons and daughters-in-law, George J. Jr. and Vanessa J. Taylor, of CT, Kevin L. Taylor of Herkimer, David W. and Anne Marie R. Taylor of VA, and Carmen L. and Lisa M. Taylor of Little Falls; 9 grandchildren, Alissa and Eric Quintin of North Carolina, Anthony S. Taylor and Allison Celest of CT, Kara-Jean L. Taylor of Rochester, Kristin Marie Taylor of VA, Kay-La M. Taylor, Carmen J. Taylor and Melanie A. Taylor, and Scott A Taylor, all of Little Falls, NY.; and a great-grandson, Sage Taylor Quintin. Barbara always cherished the memory of her grandson, Kevin Richard-James Taylor, who predeceased her. Barbara also leaves a brother, William Grant Exline, Jr. of Bridgewater, NY; several nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins and many special friends including June Golden, Jeanie Moshier, Gary Moshier, and Marie Maine.

Visitation will be held on Thursday evening from 5 to 7 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Barbara's funeral will commence on Friday at 10:00 a.m. at Crown Hill Memorial Park Chapel in Clinton. Burial will immediately follow services.
