“ I met Carmello when she was staying at Grey Nuns. I was her waitress there. Carmello was the reason I stayed at that work for as long as I did. She was an amazing women with a wonderful sense of humor. She brightened my day every time I seen her. Every night at dinner her watch would go off and it would cock-a-doodle-do and tell her the time. Thats how I knew she was down for dinner. She also would always dance with me and sing to me in Italian. She was the best friend I ever had. If any one has a picture of her please send it to my e-mail. Thank You!
P.s. Carmella you'll always be in my heart.##imported-begin##Nicole C##imported-end##

“ Frank, we were so sorry to learn of your mother's passing. You were always such a caring and loving son. Your mom was lucky to have you and Suzanne, especially in these last years. I have many good memories of us all growing up on Dawes Ave. And I also remember how proudly your mother and father would speak of you and your family whenever I'd visit Utica. It was a wonderful place and time we shared. May your mother now rest peacefully in God's loving arms. And may you and your family find comfort in knowing that you honored your mother with the utmost love and care.##imported-begin##Joanne Pacilio Worrall & Angela Pacilio##imported-end##
