“ Our task as the bereaved is to give meaning to the world, and our place in this world, after everything has been changed... Sometimes we believe we have been forsaken... it is in these moments of our deepest hurt we risk our deepest honesty, we must reach inside ourselves to find forgiveness... for it is through loving others that we are healed.##imported-begin##Janine##imported-end##

“ Donna, Dorothy and Aunt Mary,
I am sorry I am not there to help with Mom. I hope you all are OK. At least you have each other to lean on. I miss everyone. Tell everyone I said HI and that I love them all.

Love Always,
Alice
