

Christine "Christy" (Hoage) Capron

May 9, 1949 - March 18, 2007

Mrs. Christine "Christy" (Hoage) Capron, age 57, of Utica, passed away on Sunday, March 19, 2007, at the Abraham House.

Born in Herkimer, NY on May 9, 1949, Christy was the daughter of the late Richard Hoage and Mamie V. (Heness) Spano. She was raised and educated in Utica.

A generous and charitable person, Christy assisted anyone in need with great servitude and thanks. She was known to help friends and family at any time of need, day or night. As a community-minded woman, she was a block captain of the streets Neighborhood Watch Program, and a volunteer at the Home Ownership Center. Through hard work and dedication, she achieved her dream and greatest accomplishment of home ownership. Her interests included reading, gardening, and caring for her feline friends. Christy possessed a strong inner faith and offered her time to the First Presbyterian Church on Genesee St.

Christy is survived by her brother and his family, Joseph Blake, Sr. and Doris Horton; several step-siblings; several nieces and nephews who she cared for as her own; many great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins; and many friends, especially acknowledging Bill, Shirley, Helen and Angie, Barb, Katy, and Gail. In keeping with Christy's wishes, there will be no public visitation. By family request, please omit floral offerings. Family and friends are respectfully invited to attend Christy's Celebration of Life and Memorial Service which will commence at 3:00 p.m. on Thursday at 120 Gold St., Utica, NY. For those wishing to do so, please consider memorial donations in Christy's honor to the Abraham House or Hospice and Palliative Care, Inc.; envelopes will be available at the service.

“ It has been quite a while since I have seen Chris yet I remember her very well.

She cared deeply for animals and friends and she often cared for a mutual friend Barb , now deceased, and her 2 chihuahas, Li'l Bit and Polly Wog.

She had an endearing way with both species and was kind , to a fault.

I'm sorry I didn't know she was sick. I would have visited, even though we had long since lost touch.

God Bless You and keep you, Chris , and I know Barb was there waiting for you with a cup of coffee, conversation and a hug, as you entered the kingdom. Polly and Li'l Bit are still alive and barking and squeekin, as always!
