

Christopher Joseph Michael "Swagg" Swider

November 25, 1992 - May 25, 2010

Christopher Joseph Michael "Swagg" Swider, age 17, of Utica, passed away on Tuesday, May 25, 2010 at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center as the result of injuries sustained in a motor vehicle accident.

Born in New Hartford on November 25, 1992, Christopher is the son of Joseph and Helen Swider. Raised and educated locally, he was currently a senior at T. R. Proctor High School. Upon his graduation with the class of 2010 he planned to attend Herkimer County Community College where he had been accepted in the Criminal Justice program of study.

"Swagg" was a fun-loving, lovable, personable teenager with a positive attitude. He was meticulous in his appearance, and his attire was contemporary and well-selected. He knew how to be a good friend and he strove for harmony among individuals. A young man who knew no prejudice, he was blessed with a diversified group of his peers and adored by a "million friends" --- a combination of his best close friends, and acquaintances he held close. He was a confidant and one who took on the worries of those he loved. Although his years on this earth were cut short, he was a beautiful soul, lived a full and happy life, and will be forever remembered by those who were lucky enough to have known and loved him. He was comfortable at a computer and texting, listened to a variety of musical genres, and liked the challenge of Xbox games. He followed sports, especially the N.Y. Yankees, the Pittsburgh Steelers, and professional wrestling. He was physically fit and trained at weight lifting at the Fitness Mill and Planet Fitness. His favorite television show was SpongeBob SquarePants. Christopher was a communicant of St. Anthony and St. Agnes Church where he also received his Sacraments. Christopher is survived by his parents, Joseph and Helen, who were very important people in his life; his step-sisters, Regina and Jeff King, and Roxanne Swider; his step-brother, Dr. Joseph Swider, Jr., PhD.; his niece, Ava Grace; aunts and uncles, including Alex H. and Norma Jones, Carol Taurisano, Patricia Siuta, and Bertha and Walt Marcinkiewicz; cousins; and longtime friends, Alphonse "Fonzi" Napoli, and Dejan. He was predeceased by his maternal grandparents, Charlotte and William S. Jones III; paternal grandparents, Joseph, Sr. and Rose Swider; aunt, Josephine Williams; and uncle, Michael Taurisano.

The family is grateful to Dr. Clifford Soultz, the St. Elizabeth Medical Center ER staff and ICU personnel, especially nurse Michael for their care and compassion; the Utica City School District Counseling Staff, and the many friends, parents, and close extended family for their support and kindness during this most difficult time.

Visitation will be hosted on Friday from 3:00-7:00 at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, 2222 Genesee St., Utica. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Christopher's funeral service and Celebration of Life which will commence on Saturday morning at 11:00 at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes where his Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. Interment will take place in St. Stanislaus Cemetery at the convenience of the family. For any of Christopher's classmates or friends in need of support, please contact the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. (315) 724-6714.

“ Christopher, I don't even know what to say. You're my best friend, and you always will be no matter what. I hate how I didn't get to say goodbye and how it had to end this way. I know you're parents are so proud to call you their son. You're an amazing human being with a beautiful soul and a heart of gold. There will never be a day I don't think of you. My prayers are with you and your family forever. Rest in peace, my best friend. I love you.##imported-begin##Laura Conley##imported-end##

“ I never knew him but I would see him around in school. I believe we went to Albany school together, just never talked to him since he was always in a higher grade than I was. But through every life there is a death. And through every happiness there is a sadness. So enjoy the happy times for now and let the sad times go by faster. For that will heal the soul and its well being.##imported-begin##JuLie##imported-end##

“ Chris
We always had wonderful times together.
You always seemed to be able to lift me up when I felt down.
I could always count on you to be there when I needed a friend.
You had a presence that could light up a room, with your warm personality and caring heart.
You will be missed by everyone that knew you and will live on in our hearts.
In your few short years, you touched so many lives.
I know you are with God in heaven and that your smiling down on us.
My prayers are that you live peace and happiness. I also pray that your family
finds comfort and that their grief will subside.##imported-

“ Joe & Helen- I am at a loss for words....Chris and Nick grew up together from Albany School to Proctor. I remember you & I Helen were always the first parents at school to pick the boys up and chat about how they were such class clowns and always seemed to have the teachers at their wits ends. I will always remeber Chris as a beautiful outgoing child with as my son a lot of "extra energy". Please remember that his memory will live on forever in all the lives he has touched. Joe and u will be forever in my prayers to give you strength to get through this tradgedy. Christopher has touched many lives and I know he is smiling down on all of you. Rest in Peace Christopher! “ The first time i met Chris in 7th grade I thought he was such a obnoxious kid and after talking to him i figured out that me and him were the same way. As we grew up together in school we learned more and more about each other and called ourselves friends. All the cool hand shakes and everyone trying to make time in school pass with his jokes and humor. It could be silent in a room and then In walks Chris and the room just explodes with noise. He was always there to comfort his friends in sadness and he was always there to make you laugh if you were just having a off day. He was the person everyone could count on. Now everyone is counting on you to be our guardian angel. I love you Chris.##imported-begin##Benjamin Zachary##imported-end##

“ I am the mother of Mark Coppola a friend of your sons. Your son had helped my son on his Eagle Project for Boy Scouts a couple years ago. I then had the opportunity to get to know your son. He was a wonderful young man full of spirit and respect. He was one of the first to offer his help to my son for his project and was so happy to help him and honored to help my son get his Eagle for Boy Scouts. I am so glad that I had an opportunity to meet your son and get to know a bit about him during this time. My son had taken your sons passing so hard and I can't even imagine what your family is going through, although I told my son one thing, the person might pass but no one can take your memories or what is in your heart away from you. “ Chris, you were such a friendly, good hearted kid. I can't believe we wasted a whole year of not hanging out.. It was definately a sign from God that you got ahold of me again. Even though we only hung out a couple times in the past few weeks I feel like we made so many memories. Seems like yesterday you were asking me to marry you in the middle of Macy's. These past few days seem like its been an eternity and now with you gone I can't do anything but think of the next time I'll see you and what it will be like. Your in a better place though Chris, you will be dearly missed by everyone. I love you so much Christopher. Please try to remember me and stay with me and those who have loved you. Rest in peace baby.

P.S.- I'm going to visit you at the tree as much as I can, along with your grave. I'm going to write you lots of letters so you never forget.###imported-begin###Stephanie Boehlert###imported-end###

“ Dear Joe and Helen,
The loss of your son was tragic and we never know what tomorrow can bring. We never had the chance to know him personally. Our granddaughter spoke often of Chris and always had a good word for him. They spent hours upon hours talking on the phone.
