

Crystal Faith Gaffey

October 11, 1963 - October 3, 2006

Crystal Faith Gaffey, age 42, of Utica, passed away on Tuesday, October 3, 2006, at the St. Luke's Home after a courageous battle. Her loving family was by her side at the time of her passing.

Born in New Hartford on October 11, 1963, Crystal was the daughter of Ruth Gaffey and the late Ralph Calicchia. Raised and educated in Utica, she graduated from T.R. Proctor High School. Crystal shared many years with Ron Gigliotti, and their relationship knew the blessing of two beautiful children and wonderful times.

During her working career, Crystal's occupations were always in the framework of helping others. She was a residence counselor at the ARC, and at one time was a bus monitor for the Utica City School District. As a mother, she was devoted to the care and well-being of her children. She dedicated her time to them and supported their family life and daily activities. She raised her children to be good people, to respect others, and to love one another. As a daughter, she was dearly appreciated and always full of life and energy.

Mother and daughter delighted in the routine of 'morning coffee and music', and her sisters shared a supportive and spiritual closeness with her. They valued her many admirable qualities. Crystal cherished the enduring memories of special outdoor trips and vacations. She enjoyed sunbathing and was very meticulous in her appearance. She believed in her God, who helped her through difficult times, and was a communicant of Historic Old St. John's Church.

Crystal's survivors include her daughter, Gabrielle Valenteen Gaffey and her fiancé, Chris Mosher, of Utica; her son, Ron L. Gigliotti, Jr. and his fiancée, Sharelle Reynolds; her companion of many years, Ron Gigliotti; her mother, Ruth Gaffey of Utica; and her grandchildren, Tristyn, and Shaliyah. In addition, she leaves her sisters, Debi Gaffey, Rochelle Torres and her fiancé, Chris Jadwick, and Joanne Calicchia, all of Utica; her brother, Joseph Dzwonkowski of Michigan; and her aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins. She was predeceased by her brother Ralph Gaffey and two sisters, Linda and her infant sister, Marie.

Visitation will be held today (Friday) from 4-6 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Please omit floral offerings.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Crystal's Mass of Christian Burial which will be celebrated Saturday morning at 9:30 at Historic Old St. John's Church. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

“ While the skills old to earn them are certainly arousing, it is the unrevealed system lower down that transforms the bracelets from pure and elemental jewelry into stories. In this anyhow, the copper cast-off for the bracelets was indeed the outer jacket of a 155mm artillery expend — the remnants of war, unfortunately, that are as much a section of Cambodia's recital as Angkor Wat. What has happened here has a approachable of virtuoso to its bovine beauty. Etching the patterns of the obsolete last alters the figurative patterns of Cambodia's more current and unhappy prior into something unmitigated: skills and incomes for victims of genocidal conflict. senks###imported-begin###nomouccemalok###imported-end##

“ To Ruth, Debbie, Joe, Rochelle, Gabrielle and Ron jr. I Loved your daughter, your sister, your mother, my friend. I have alot of wonderful memories that could fill up a wonderful blue sunny ski with a colorful rainbow that shared her name of faith. She was very blessed. Her caring and loving family that understood her from the moment she was born. She had a great love for her children and their graceful spirits. Her laughter filled up my heart. She understood life. Crystal would help a stranger, friend or family but a stranger not for long. They would become a friend. She helped by giving you a hug, a smile confidence in yourself and say you can do it(don't give up. She gave you (faith), hope, laughter and love. She never judged people. I will never forget her(our) songs, (her)our dances, our talks, her zest for life. God created an Angel and called her home with him. I'd like to believe she is up there with Ralph, Linda and baby sis. I know she went home to rest and to watch over the rest of us.

With Faith

Love you###imported-begin##Margaret Peters###imported-end##
