“ Daddy- No one will ever know just how much I love you. I'm heartbroken knowing I will never get the chance to hug my daddy again. I will hold every memory tight to my heart as I have since a little girl. I would move heaven and earth to sit on your lap and listen to whisper in my ear how much you love me and i'm your little girl as you always did. Please know daddy that through all the good and bad times you were and are the most important man in my life. I hope you have found peace and are able to look down on me and hear my thoughts and prayers that are of you. I love you daddy with all that I am,, i'm so sorry. “ When i first read in the paper about David's horrible accident, i knew immediately that he was the person i went to grammar school with. i could close my eyes and see his face altho i had not seen him since those childhood days. i also remember his sister Joanna. i can still see her face. I was praying for David and then I saw the Obituary in the paper. There was the face that I remembered. I am so sorry for the pain that he endured and for all of your loss.

David, rest in peace. We have come a long way from Wetmore Street School.

“ To Family,

May your faith and precious memories bring the beloved brother and friend to all peace. May he never be forgotten or loved by the people he's left behind. You were loved dearly in life as you are in death. May the Lord bless you in death as he did in life and may the Lord comfort your family in this time of need.
With Deepest Sympathy.
