

Deana Nicole Morgia

January 6, 1984 - January 11, 2024

UTICA – Deana Nicole Morgia, age 40, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, January 11, 2024.

Born at Darnell Army Hospital in Fort Hood, Texas, on January 6, 1984, Deana was the daughter of Joseph Morgia, Jr., and Lisa Cooper. She also knew the love and guidance of her stepmother, Michelle Morgia. Raised and educated in Utica, she attended T.R. Proctor High School.

A devoted mother, Deana loved her children dearly and they were the source of warmth in her heart. Deana will be remembered for her bubbly soul and outgoing nature. She always put forth her best effort in everything she did.

Deana had a passion for modeling, having been enrolled at the Barbizon Modeling School at one time. She was very sociable and was most comfortable in the presence of her loved ones and friends.

Deana is survived by her mother, Lisa Cooper of Texas; father and stepmother, Joseph, Jr. and Michelle Morgia; daughters, Izabella Roca, and Solare Roca; sons, Aaron Roca, and Josiah Roca, and their father Henry Roca; brothers, Joseph Paul Morgia and his fiancée Gabrielle Gaffey, and Dominick Morgia; and maternal grandparents, Mary Esther Woodham, and the late Paul Woodham, Jr. Her life was also enriched by her nephew and niece, Tyler Morgia, and Teaghan Morgia; aunts and uncles, Phillis Gaillard and the late Nick Gaillard, Kevin and Karen Woodham (aka Aunt and Uncle Woody), Camille and Dave Hanzalik, and Chris and Edward Eck; many cousins; and sister-in-law, Rocio Roca, with whom she shared a special relationship. She also leaves behind her dear friends, Cassandra Rolle, Nicole Casey, and Hope Masao. Deana was preceded by her paternal grandparents, Joseph J., Sr., and Gloria J. (Napoli) Morgia.

The family wishes to thank the members of the U.P.D. and the U.F.D. for their valiant efforts.

The family will honor and commemorate Deana's life at a private time.
