She will also be remembered by her siblings and their spouses, Sylvia Branck, Donna and Vincent "Butch" Sbarra, William Carr and Angie Snell, Richard "Dicky" Carr, and Patricia Drownowski; her nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and longtime friends Sue and Elaine; and her faithful canine, Pugsley, who was always by her side. She is now reunited with her dear friend April who preceded her.

“ R.I.P. Denise you will be missed we still cant believe it you were a good friend and neighbor. Every time we go outside to walk the dogs you will be thought of and missed. She was always willing to help us in anyway she could and that was one thing I liked about her. She was a kind and giving person. Our prayers go out to those she left behind may the lord be with them through these hard times. Frank, Linda, and Marlana Williams
