“ Dick was a great friend of my grandfather Tony Calamusa. This sends chills and goose bumps because my grandfather passed away just 8 days before Dick on May 1st. He was always so funny and kind to me as a young child, he will always be remebered and missed.

“ My condolences to the Polera family. I just found out about Dick's passing today, Jan. 16, 2014 from a neighbor who happened to google his name. We were talking about how we couldn't find him to tell him of my dad, Tony Calamusa's passing on May 1, 2013. They died 8 days apart from each other and neither of them knew that.

Dick was an honorary member of the Calamusa family and has been for as long as I remember. I am the oldest Calamusa grandchild of my dad's parents and Dick has always been there. He was there for holidays, workdays and card game nights. He had the greatest sense of humor but we really didn't know much about his personal life. I knew he was a bagel baker at one time and tried to live alone in his mobile home after his stroke. My dad wasn't well enough to travel to see him in the recent past but they often talked on the phone until Dick disappeared and no one knew how to contact him, including my Uncle Barney who also kept in touch with him. I would have wanted to at least say goodbye and to thank him for all the support he always showed to my Calamusa family. Be at peace, Dick, and please give my deceased Calamusa family friends a big hug for us.

Sincerely, Vicki Calamusa

“ My father, Joe Calamusa, and Dick were best friends since childhood. Dad passed 20 yrs ago and at his wake was the last time I saw Dick. He called me "piece a bite" because when I was little I would say that to him asking for food. He called me that the last time I saw him I was 40 yrs old then. He was a true friend to my dad and to me as well. I will believe they already have a great Tee time as my uncle Tony joined them yesterday May 11th. God bless all they will be missed.
