Mr. Edmund T. Trevisani, Sr., Ret. U.P.D., age 88, of Utica, passed away on Wednesday, September 21, 2011 at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center with his loving family by his side.

Born in Utica on March 24, 1923, Edmund was the son of the late Tommazo “Thomas” and Angelina (Filomena) Trevisani. He was raised and educated locally attending T.R. Proctor High School. A proud veteran of the United States Army, he honorably served his country during World War II. On September 6, 1948 he married the former Rose Mary Graziano with whom he shared a deep and devoted love for 63 years.

Edmund’s 24 year career as a public servant began on February 24, 1955 when he was appointed to the Utica Police Department. During his tenure with the UPD, he served in the Uniformed Patrol Division, retiring on December 15, 1979. Concurrently, he was involved in the family business with his brother Pat at Trevisani Market located on the corner of Kossuth Avenue and Jay Street. At home, he was a patriarch and provider particularly proud of his family and his profession. The unity of his family and their well-being were his focus in life. Through his example, he provided his children with a strong work ethic and impressed upon them the importance of education. Utica Lodge #2054 and was active in the American Legion. He was a loyal NY Yankees fan. A man motivated by love and a sense of duty, Edmund honored his family, his country, and his community. As a man of faith, he was devoted to his God and Catholic creed and was a communicant of St. Mary of Mt. Carmel/Blessed Sacrament Parish.

Edmund is survived by his wife, Rose Mary. “ Dear Joanne, Dave, Steve, Anthony, Alane, and the whole Trevisani family,
We are so sorry to hear about your Dad. We were away, and found out about his passing when we got home tonight or we would have been at the service today. We will see you tomorrow as your family celebrates your father's life . Growing up in East Utica, I have fond memories walking home from Proctor past your family homestead , always seeing one of the "Trevisani's" outside .I am sure he was very proud of all of you . What a wonderful legacy and long life lived by your Dad! As you say goodbye for now, may the blessing of Faith in God, cherished memories, love and tradition from your life together, sustain all of you.
With love, friendship and sincere sympathy, Lenora and Anthony Murad

He was my mentor at one time and I shall never forget how he took me under his wing and guided me when I was a rookie. May God bless him and his family.
