Mrs. Edna R. (Ubl) Fraccola, age 91, of Utica, passed away on Saturday, September 1, 2007, at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center with her loving family by her side.

Born in New York City on October 31, 1915, Edna was the daughter of the late Walter and Mary (Krass) Ubl. Raised and educated in New York City, she was brought up by her loving grandmother, Ellen Monahan, who instilled in her the great value of God and faith. In April of 1932 she married Albert G. Fraccola, Sr. who passed away in 1974.

A disciplined, honest woman, Edna is survived by her two beloved sons, Albert G. Fraccola, Jr. of New Hartford, and Joseph P. Fraccola of Utica; her three grandchildren; and her great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by her sister, Ellen; and her brother, Walter.

In keeping with Edna's wishes, services will be held privately. Interment will take place at Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. By family request, please omit floral offerings. For those wishing to do so, please consider memorial donations in Mrs. Fraccola's honor to the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

"If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane, I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again. No farewells were spoken, no time to say "Goodbye", You were gone before I knew it, and only God knows why. My heart still aches with sadness, and secret tears still flow. What it meant to love you – no one can ever know. But now I know you want me to mourn for you no more; to remember all the happy times, life still has much in store. Since you'll never be forgotten, I pledge to you today – A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay."

May the Lord say those words you richly deserve: "Well done good and faithful servant. Now enter the joy prepared for you from the beginning of time."
