

Edward Angle

January 14, 1927 - July 12, 2014

Mr. Edward Angle, age 87, passed away on Saturday, July 12, 2014 at The Abraham House with the support of his family.

Born in Oxford, New York on January 14, 1927, Edward was the son of the late Edward and Sue (Platt) Angle, and he also knew the love of his stepmother, Olive. He was raised and educated in Oxford. A proud veteran of World War II, Edward honorably served his country from 1942-1946. He was joined in marriage with the former Betsy Conrad.

For many years, Edward worked as a farm laborer cultivating, harvesting, and maintaining the productivity of the homestead. He worked long hours and in all weather conditions. Edward was a determined man who persevered in all his endeavors. But the greatest gift in his golden years was the love he shared with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. During his leisure time, he enjoyed watching wrestling on television.

Edward is survived by his wife, Betsy; his children, Barb Tompkins, Berna Cross, Edward Smith, Richard Angle, Raymond Angle Sr., Eugene Angle, Marge Knapp, and Elaine Manwarren; his many grandchildren; and his many great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his son, Scott Angle.
