“ I stood beside Vi Bonomo, in Old St John's Choir loft, from 1973 to 1989, in the Alto section. She helped me so much with learning to read music, and to follow her lead in singing. What a lovely person she was.

Condolences (belated ones at that) to Vi's family, and close friends.

*Sincerely yours,
(Ms.) Patricia Finnegan*

“ I had the privilege of working with Vi for 25 years on the NYSWBA Board of Director. She was missed when she retired and will join many ladies who have gone before her. Vi's contributions were many to the organization. God Bless Her....

We were so sorry to hear about Vi. She was such a lovely lady and a wonderful friend. The bowling world now has another angel and I am sure that those who have gone home before Vi will welcome her with open arms. God Bless the family.
