

Elvira (Arlotto) Danella

September 26, 1914 - July 20, 2006

Mrs. Elvira (Arlotto) Danella, age 91, of Utica, passed away in her sleep on Thursday, July 20, 2006. Born on September 26, 1914, Elvira was the daughter of the late Michael and Maria (Paciello) Arlotto. She was raised and educated in Utica and attended local schools. In 1939, at St. Mary of Mt. Carmel Church, she married Judge Jack Danella, with whom she shared a blessed union of 44 years prior to his passing on March 8, 1984.

In all her life's activities, Elvira's guiding spirit was the enduring closeness she shared with her husband, Jack. She steadfastly supported him and the activities of the Democratic political party which encompassed and enriched their lives. A well-rounded and athletic person in her own right, Elvira persevered with a competitive spirit in all that she did. She was an accomplished bridge player, an avid golfer, at one time an active member of the Yahnundasis Country Club, and member of the St. Elizabeth Guild. A deeply religious person, Elvira practiced her faith with devotion at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes.

Mrs. Danella is survived by her sister, Irene Danella of Cape Cod, MA; nieces and nephews, including James Esposito, Mary Jane Spanfelner, Carol Green, Mary Danella, Sandra Taraska, Dave Benedetto, Michele Lehman, Dr. Nicholas Cucharale, Jr., Kim Carcone, Nancy Swonke, Marsha Wooster; great nieces, great nephews and cousins; a sister-in-law, Dee Rowlands; as well as her late husband Jack's nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by five sisters, Arlette Cox, Catherine D'Onofrio, Genevieve Esposito, Ann (Danella)

Anderson, and Dorothy Cucharale; four brothers, James Arlotto, Joseph Arlotto, Gerald Arlotto, and Richard Arlotto.

Visitation will be held Saturday morning from 9 to 10 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Elvira's funeral will commence on Saturday morning at 10:00 from the funeral home and at 11:00 at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes where her Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery. Elvira's family ask that you remember her with a prayer or kind thought.
