

Elvira A. Palmer

December 18, 1967 - November 25, 2018

UTICA – Elvira A. Palmer, age 50, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, November 25, 2018 at Utica Rehabilitation and Nursing Center.

Born in Salisbury, Maryland on December 18, 1967, Elvira was the daughter of the late Robert Donaldson and Ruth Ann Palmer. She was raised and educated in Maryland.

When Elvira relocated to Utica, she worked at Loretto Nursing Home for a brief period of time. She loved children, an attribute which allowed her to enjoy her time as a day care provider. She was always smiling, very soft-spoken, and non-judgmental. Elvira was always there for her family and friends to comfort and give valuable advice. The word ‘no’ was not a part of her vocabulary when it came to the needs of her children, grandchildren, and loved ones. She had an affinity and adoration for short, flashy shoes, and she enjoyed frequenting the casino. She was a member of the Believers Miracle Deliverance Ministries.

Elvira is survived by her loving companion, Nate Sessom; her sons, Nathaniel L. “Nate” Sessome, and Jamar Sessoms and his wife Nicole; her grandchildren, Nate Jr. (Rhontessa Jackson), Nariell (Kiara Rodrigues), and Namari Sessome (Sharesha Pritchett); Jamar Jr., Jamir, Jamiya Ann, and Jamarhiana LeAnn Sessoms; aunts, and uncle Will Brooks; sister, Felicia Palmer; and brother, Kevin Palmer, both of Maryland; nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, godsons, Keith & Darin Anderson, and Justin Pressley, special “sister” Kisha Pressley, and friends, Linda, Monica & Dawn
