

Mrs. Evelyn M. Falvo

April 18, 1927 - November 19, 2015

Mrs. Evelyn M. (Pucine) Falvo, age 88, was surrounded by her loving family when she passed away on Thursday, November 19, 2015 at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Born in Utica on April 18, 1927, Evelyn was the daughter of the late Frank A. and Theresa (Nole) Pucine. She was a graduate of T.R. Proctor High School with the class of 1944. On August 20, 1949 she married Anthony J. "Tony" Falvo, Jr. with whom she shared 64 loving years as true companions prior to his passing on October 21, 2013.

Evelyn was the center of her family's hearts. Her greatest joy was having family around her, and everyone felt at home at Evelyn's happy home. During her leisure time, she loved to play the "slots". Evelyn held a deep faith and spirituality in her Catholic creed.

Evelyn is survived by her children and their loved ones, Francis and Christine Falvo of Rome, Terese and Jan Malek of Herkimer, Christine Maslona and Richard Szymanski of Liverpool, and Daniel and Diane Falvo of Marietta, GA. Always close to her heart were the memories of her sons, James A. Falvo, and Anthony J. Falvo III; and her son-in-law, John S. Maslona, all of whom preceded her in death. She will also be remembered by her daughter-in-law, Joanne Falvo of Utica; her 15 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; 2 great-great-grandchildren; and her brothers and sisters-in-law, William and Merinda Pucine of Liverpool, and Angelo and Vanessa Pucine of Utica. Her extended family includes her nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and in-laws, Lenore Falvo, Eugene N. Falvo, and Nick Abdou. She was predeceased by her sister, Mary Abdou; her brothers, Francis, and Richard J. Pucine; as well as siblings and spouses of her late husband, Anthony.

The family is grateful to the Masonic Care Community of NY, especially the amazing staff of the Saranac Household who graced, enriched, and renewed Evelyn's life through their many kind gestures; they will remain in the hearts of her children for all of their wonderful deeds. Also to the entire staff at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center who provided care to Evelyn during her numerous stays.

Visitation will be held Sunday from 2:00-5:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Evelyn's funeral service and Celebration of Life will commence on Monday morning at 10:30 from the funeral home and at 11:30 at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes where her Mass of Christian Burial will be offered by Rev. Joseph Salerno. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

“ My prayers and thoughts are with the Falvo family today. Evelyn always had a smile and a kind word when ever I saw her. I hope she is at peace and reunited with her husband. I'm proud to say I knew both of them and will miss them as my own family.

“ The first thing I thought about this morning was our dear Evelyn. I went outside and the first thing I saw was a cloud with a silver lining. I thought to myself, what could the silver lining be in the loss of this sweet woman. A plane went by with a vapor trail and then the sun shone brightly on me. Then these thoughts came to mind. Our silver lining is this. Like the vapor trail, you're time with us was short. The plane reminded me that although I can not see or touch you, just like I could not see or touch the people in the plane, you are with us in our hearts. The sun reminded me of the joy and happiness you brought into our lives. You gave me an elf for my shelf last year for Christmas and I brought it into work and it sits on the entertainment center on Saranac as a constant reminder of our "Grandma Pixie" that graced us with her presence. You will always hold a special place in our hearts and remember, this is not good bye, but, I'll see you later! May the Lord bring each of your family members grace, comfort and peace at this time. Until we meet and laugh together again, get cooking lady, because we are going to have one big feast at your mansion in Heaven! Love you always, Claire

“ To the family and friends of Evelyn I only meet and knew her for a short time when she was on Saranac at the MCC. She had a friendly face with a compassionate spirit that the staff sometimes needed. My thoughts and prayers are with her family at this time.
