“ Having worked with Evelyn at Court St Clinic I can remember how she worked her way up the ladder. I was so proud to know her and will never forget her sense of humor and heart warming laugh. Her red beans and rice were always a special treat. So sad to learn of her passing. A beautiful soul taken way too soon. RIP sweet girl.

“ I'm still in disbelief that this is real! Aunt Evy was always the real MVP! She opened her doors to many in their times of need, welcomed me as family and NEVER judged me! She made sure to always remain in contact and gave me laughs that I'll never forget and will cherish forever. We love you Aunt Evy! I know you'll always show the kids signs that your still here! You always told me jokingly that you would 💕💕💕

“ Very sorry for your loss. I've worked with Evelyn for many years. We started together at Court St and continued at Hobart St. We shared many laughs. During my last visit back to visit, I got the biggest hug from my EVELYN. I will cherish that forever. I know she loved her kids, grandkids and Don. Rest in peace my friend. Sending hugs to all.
