“ To our precious little Eviah Rose, You have touched all of our lives deeply with the few precious moments you were here. As hard as it is for us to accept here on earth, God had a greater purpose for you in heaven. You would have been a beautiful little girl but instead you are a gorgeous angel in heaven carrying out God's will. You have left us with one very important lesson in that life is way to short and we all need to live life to its absolute fullest and cherish each moment. You have also made us realize that as a family we need to stick together and love each other. You will be greatly missed and say hello to Papa Mario for us. We love you always... Love Angel, Marissa, and Luciano
