

Florence R. (Harris) Farina

December 8, 1912 - July 4, 2010

Mrs. Florence R. (Harris) Farina, age 97, formerly of Utica, and currently of Palm Bay, Florida, passed away on Sunday, July 4, 2010 at the Palm Bay Hospital in Florida.

Born in Utica on December 8, 1912, Florence was the daughter of the late Edwin and Rosina (Thomas) Harris. She was raised and educated in Utica. Florence was wed to Nicholas "Nicky" Farina and the couple shared a blessed union until his passing in 1981. At one time, Florence was involved in the operation of the family concern, Farina Sausage Company.

Florence cherished the memory of her beloved daughter, Marie Dixon-Coffman, who passed away in September 2009. She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Jacqueline F. and John B. Romano of Jamesville, NY; her son, Michael Farina; her grandchildren, Mark Dixon, Lisa Maier, Elena Dixon, and Mark Romano; and her great-grandchildren, Randy, and Kurt. Survivors also include her nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews. She was predeceased by her four sisters.

The family will celebrate Florence's life and offer committal prayers in a private gathering. Interment will take place in St. Agnes Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave

Tribute Wall

“ To Jackie & Bruce; Micheal and all of Florence's family I want to extend my deepest sympathy to you all for your loss of a great lady. Florence was like a second mother to myself and my brothers. Her and Nick were always a big part of our family gatherings that bring back many great memories of them and my parents. They are all together now playing Pinochle as they did so many times before. She will be deeply missed but she will live on in so many hearts forever. May she rest in peace.
