

Mr. Guy Joseph "Frank" Julian

December 28, 1926 - August 4, 2010

Mr. Guy Joseph "Frank" Julian, age 83, of Frankfort, peacefully passed on Wednesday, August 4, 2010 at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Born in Utica on December 28, 1926, Guy was the son of the late John J. and Sarah S. (Kowal) Julian. He was raised and educated locally. He proudly served his country in the United States Sea Bees during World War II stationed in Okinawa and Guam. He also did a second tour of duty during the Korean Conflict in North Africa. Frank's life was made more complete and spirited through his marriage to the former Dorothy Martello. An employee of the Utica Steam Engine Company, he devoted numerous years with the company prior to his retirement.

Quiet moments of reflection could be found in one of Frank's favorite past-times which was fishing on his favorite lake. He was a communicant of St. Anthony and St. Agnes Church.

Frank is survived by his wife, Dorothy; and his daughter, Janine J. Julian. Always close to his heart was the memory of his son, John Joseph Julian, who passed away on September 10, 1989. Survivors also include his sisters, Anne Baran, and Joyce Julian and Wayne Byer; his in-laws, Lena and Rocco Cuchiarale; loving nieces and nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins. He was predeceased by his sister, Dorothy Moser; and his brother-in-law, Henry Baran.

The family would like to extend their deepest gratitude to the doctors, nurses, and staff of the St. Elizabeth Medical Center for all the care and concern shared with Frank.

The family will gather privately to honor and celebrate Guy's life. Relatives and friends are respectively invited to attend his funeral service which will commence on Saturday morning at 9:00 at St. Anthony and St. Agnes Church where his Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. The family will receive visitors at the conclusion of the service. Committal prayers and entombment will follow in Calvary Mausoleum with military honors.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave.
