

Hanna Rae Hinman

August 22, 2003 - November 12, 2015

Hanna Rae Hinman, age 12, was held by an angel as she passed away on Thursday, November 12, 2015 at the Faxon-St. Luke's Healthcare Center with her loving family by her side.

Born in Syracuse on August 22, 2003, Hanna was the daughter of Raymond H. and Sarah B. (Mariani) Hinman. Hanna loved music (the louder, the better!) and enjoyed a home filled with love and activity. She looked forward to gatherings and “fun times” with her siblings and cousins. For a young lady who couldn't speak, she was always heard. Her family lovingly considered her life, her love, and her needs to be the focal point of their attention. She was a member of St. George's Episcopal Church.

Hanna is survived by her parents, Ray and Sarah; her sister, Emma Hinman; her brother, Thomas Hinman, both at home; her maternal grandparents, James T. and Barbara Mariani of Sauquoit; paternal grandparents, William C. and Wanda L. Hinman of Chadwicks; maternal uncles and aunt, James A. Mariani, Jill Baty, and Michael T. Mariani; paternal uncle and aunt, William C. and Kristina Hinman; many great-aunts, great-uncles; and cousins, especially acknowledging Ryan, Silas Mariani; Michael, Joseph, Nathan, and Benjamin Mariani; Samantha, William, and Nathan Hinman.

Visitation will be held Wednesday from 4:00-7:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc. 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Hanna's funeral service and Celebration of Life will commence on Thursday morning at 11:00 from the funeral home and at 12:00 noon at St. George's Episcopal Church in Chadwicks. Interment will take place in Sauquoit Valley Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

“ *Hinman & Mariani Families,
I was very sorry to hear about the passing of your beloved and beautiful daughter, sister, grandchild, niece and cousin, Hanna Rae. I can't even begin to imagine the pain and sorrow involved with saying good-bye to a child. I have added you and your family to my daily prayer list. And, when I attend mass on Sunday, I will add you and your family to our parish book of prayers. May our Good and Merciful Lord watch over, bless, protect comfort and console you and your families as you endure this most difficult, trying and sad time in your lives. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to you and your families in your time of loss and sorrow. Rob Sherman*

“ Hanna had a beautiful laugh and smile. She absolutely loved it when Tom and Emma got home from school! Her whole face would light up, she would smile and start laughing when she heard them come in. It was beautiful to watch Emma and Tom with her, the way they expressed love and care for her. :) She was truly a precious girl. I am honored and blessed to have met her. Thank you, Sarah, Ray, Emma & Tom for letting me meet her and be a part of your family. It was too short. Love and prayers to each of you.

“ The hardest thing for a parent is to bury a child: The blessed are chosen to raise his children as they are strong when he takes them to be by his side. May you all be strong and blessed even more to know that you were chosen by him to raise his special child. My condolences to you all: May his peace and love be with you.

“ I was the child who could not walk or talk. I gave all of you opportunities. Opportunities to discover the depth of your character, not mine; the depth of your love; your commitment; your patience, your abilities. The opportunity to explore your spirit more deeply than you imagined possible. I drove you further than you would have gone on your own, working harder seeking answers to your many questions with no answers. I was your disabled child. So celebrate with me, rejoice in what you have done, all I ever needed and you all gave me was unconditional love. Remember every tear holds a memory and your hearts the love, Hanna will live on forever.
