

Ibrahim Lulic

December 9, 1941 - August 7, 2006

Family and friends mourn the death of Ibrahim Lulic, age 64, who passed away on Monday, August 7, at the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center. Born in Cazin, Bosnia on December 9, 1941, Ibrahim was the son of the late Suljo and Hatka (Nadarevic) Lulic. Raised and educated in Bosnia, he was a veteran of the Bosnian Army. He was married to the former Tamame Fazlic; the couple shared a devotion to each other. Mr. Lulic was employed by the Keymark Corp., a metal manufacturer in Fonda, NY.

Survivors include his loving wife, Tamame; four daughters and sons-in-law, Irma Lulic and Salih Rizvanovic, Haseda and Resad Omerhodzic, Semsal and Safet Catic, and Rasema and Senad Nuhanovic; two sons and a daughter-in-law, Saban and Herma Lulic, and Imsir Lulic; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, sisters, brothers, and a host of other relatives in Utica and Bosnia.

Funeral services and burial will take place in Cazin, Bosnia at a later date.
