

Infant Michael Keith Crawford, Jr.

April 10, 2009 - April 10, 2009

Michael K., Sr. & Jennifer (Terrell) Crawford, mourn the loss of their son, Michael Keith Crawford, Jr., who became an angel on Friday, April 10, 2009. He will be missed by his sisters, Shante Washington, Ashley Crawford, and Brianna Dawes; and a special nephew, Cameron Crawford.

The love and compassion of the staff of the Birthplace at Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center was of great comfort and a source of courage to his parents.

Services will be held privately at the convenience of the family.

“ Jen, Mike and girls: I am truly sorry for this enduring and painful time that you are experiencing. I don't have any words that will make you feel better quickly and know that over time as your hearts heal, the pain will be less. I pray that you all feel the presence of the Lord as He will comfort and heal your pain no matter what. Mike Jr is in heaven and his spirit is will be with you all. He and the other angels will be watching over you daily. I am only a call away, even if you just need someone to listen to you as I can not be there in person. Know that I miss and love you all! You are in my prayers!###imported-begin##Andie###imported-end##

“ Life is precious and that is why it is of the utmost importance to cherish every moment of it. We do not feel the effects of taking things for granted until after we lose them, and that's when it hurts the most. There is no such thing as a time machine and we can't turn back the hands of time, so it is crucial for us to understand that bad things will happen in life, even at the most unexpected times. But we are not defined by those bad events, we are defined by our will-power to overcome those events. MC, never take your loved ones for granted, love hard and laugh loud. You are forever in my heart and you have my most sincere condolences...##imported-begin##Aliya##imported-end##
