

Mrs. Jaclyn Carolyn "Jackie" (Salerno) Viti

March 24, 1980 - February 21, 2013

Mrs. Jaclyn Carolyn "Jackie" (Salerno) Viti, age 32, passed into the arms of her loving Father on Thursday, February 21, 2013.

Born in Utica on March 24, 1980, Jaclyn was the daughter of James and Patricia (Britelli) Salerno. She was a graduate of Notre Dame High School/Class of 1998 and continued her studies at Utica College where she earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education. She pursued her post graduate work at Touro College where she was awarded her Masters degree and her permanent New York State Certification in Elementary Education. On October 25, 2008 she married her 'soulmate', Christopher M. Viti; they were a perfect match that truly loved, adored, and honored each other in very humble ways.

Jackie was employed by the Utica City School District as an elementary teacher at Martin Luther King School and then at Watson Williams School. She flourished as a teacher mentoring and nurturing young minds, and her students' well-being was a top priority to her. She provided love, guidance, and a concern for their physical prosperity both in and out of the classroom. Currently, she worked alongside her father, husband, and aunt in the operation of the family business at Poncell Construction. Jackie was courageous, dependable, forgiving, accepting, and unique. Her kind, fun-loving and spirited personality lit up a room. She was also a no-nonsense kind of gal when it came to things that were important to her values and morals. With her youthful glow, children gravitated to her and she had a special way with them. She was the greatest “Aunt Keke” to her nieces and nephews, and they were mesmerized by her. She loved to dance as if no one were watching and could get down with the best of them. She loved hip hop music. She was a great shopper and organizer, had fun decorating and redecorating, often changing accessories each time, and her favorite color was orange. Jackie played an integral part in preparing for, assisting and participating in the Tuesday Night Rosary Group which was hosted at her parent’s home. She found solace in camaraderie for the purpose of prayer. Jackie was a parishioner of Historic Old St. John’s Church.

Jackie is survived by her beloved husband, “Viti”. At the time of Jackie’s passing she was blessed and anticipating the birth of their first child, a little boy; her parents, James and Patricia Salerno of New Hartford; her brother, Jimmy Salerno, Jr. of Philadelphia; and her sisters and brothers-in-law, Tricia and Steven Quagrello, and Nina and Carey Fortnam, all of Fairport. She was also blessed with an exceptional sisterhood with Sara Rich. She will also be forever remembered by her nieces and nephews, Isabella, Anthony, and Mia Quagrello; Ava Fortnam, as well as an anticipated new niece; and Drew Witchley; her father-in-law and mother-in-law, Guy, Jr. and Lucy (Attili) Viti of Whitesboro; her sister-in-law and her husband, Kimberly and Dave Witchley; aunts and uncles, Betty Dutcher, Bernadette Hughes, Judi and Louis Powers, and Frank “Ranny” Britelli, Joseph and Anna Rose Salerno, Lorraine “Cookie” Riscica, and Theresa Sokolowski; and many cousins. Jackie was also loved by her grandmother-in-law Lena Attili, as well as her many aunts, uncles, and cousins of the Viti and Attili families. Jackie’s life was enhanced with the love and support of Anne Marie and John Rich as well as their families, and she especially loved the summers with them at Sylvan Beach. She was predeceased by her maternal grandparents, Frank and Lucy (Fiore) Britelli; and her paternal grandparents, James, Sr. and Rose (Barone) Salerno. The family is grateful for the efforts and compassion of the Whitestown Police Department and the St. Elizabeth Medical Center Emergency Room staff, especially Varinya Sheppard.

Visitation will be held Monday from 4:00-7:00 at Historic Old St. John's Church, 240 Bleecker St., (corner of John St.) All visitors will be given the opportunity to pay their respects. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Jackie's funeral service which will commence on Tuesday morning at 10:00 at Historic Old St. John's Church where her Mass of Christian burial will be offered by Rev. John Buehler. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

“ It has been 10 years since you left. My mom and I were just talking about the hallway incident, I don't think Roey will enter forget that hair raising experience!! Anyways, I always tell people my happiest time in my life was when we were all inseparable. I would give Mortimer to go back. I love and miss you. It never gets easier just somehow more tolerable. Ugh. Love you Jack “ Jack, I still think about you all the time. I know you're at peace. At least I know Opie is up there with you keeping you entertained! You were and are one of the kindest people I've ever had the privilege of knowing and I was lucky enough to be able to call you my friend. You are forever missed and loved. Until we meet again, you are never forgotten.

“ Jackie was one of the most beautiful selfless people I've ever had the chance to meet and become friends with. She took time out of her days to help get my nursery set up when I was pregnant with my twins, she held my baby shower, was at my wedding. We have so many memories together. I'm grateful for every one of them and I miss you every day Jackie.

“ Jack,

It was a year ago today that i lost you and our son forever. While i can remember that night as it re plays in my head every day i also remember all the good times we shared. I can still hear your voice saying Viti I still can see your facial expressions like you were here talking to me. Our time together was way to short J and every day i try to figure out why and the same answer comes to me. I don't know why. You will forever be carried in my heart until we meet again and start our family. In the mean time you better have a good answer to why for when i do see you again ha ha. I know you are at peace now Mama i just wish it didn't have to be this way. The pain of loosing you still runs deep in my heart but all the good and joy and laughter you brought to me is starting to ease that pain. I now think of you and tell stories of you and us and laugh were before all i could do was cry. Rest my love rest in peace Jackie and take care of our son. I know you two are with me every day as i hold you close in my heart and mind. Don't worrie to much about me whatever happens in this life of mine i know that someday we will be togther again as a family i miss you JJ and i love you.

My mother in law asked Drew if he wanted to go the cemetery today. They go when it's nice to visit his grandpa and uncle Donnie . Drew said to her , yes. I want to see Aunt Jackie. He directed my mother in law right to you and said " I love you Aunt Jackie" and blew you a kiss. You are so loved and so missed by so many people. I know you're with us all in spirit and miss you more each day. Love you

Out of our gang u and I always had the best stories of what we did when we were three sheets to the wind. Only you marion and darb know the most embarrassing stories about me. And you shared yours with me. With you no matter what stupid thing I had done u always laughed your infectious laugh and made it something to want to tell. Boy do I have a whopper for you!!! “ Happy Easter, friend. I know you'll be rejoicing with the rest of the angels. I was reading Heaven is for Real, for Kids to my little girl the other night and she was filled with such wonder and amazement about all of the beauty that is everywhere in heaven and she said to me, "Isn't it so great that no one is ever sad or hurt in heaven?" She is 5 years old and has so many great questions, all I could think of was you and baby Viti, though.

I, like everyone am having a difficult time wrapping my head around all of this, but I suppose maybe it is not for me to understand. I am glad you are at peace . Watch over your family, they really miss you. God Bless.

Everyday people are lighting candles and saying kind words about Jackie and the great person she was. Please know that you are also in our hearts and prayers. Not many will say they can empathize with your situation and the losses you have suffered. Please know we are praying for your strength and God' s guidance to help you work through this difficult time.
I know we do not know each other but every week I ask your Uncle how you are and if you need anything at all. I had to reach out to you to let you know we are here, in any way you need any of us.
God Bless you Chris.*

“ Dear Jack,
I don't even know where to begin. Thank you for showing me how beautiful a friendship can be. Thank you for being there for me. I can't put into words how much you mean to me and how I seen you through my eyes. I wanted to be more like you. So caring and so loving. Never selfish. My times with you were some of the best times of my life and never without a laugh. There are only a handful of friends that last after high school and you were one of mine. One of my best friends and I am so very thankful for that. I truly hope you are at peace now even if that means not here with us. I love you always Jack. You will forever remain in my heart and my memories. Viti, the Salerno family and to the rest of Jackie's friends, my heart goes out to you during this very difficult time. “ To the entire Viti and Salerno families,
I was lucky enough to spend a good part of my childhood and adolescence living around the corner from The Viti family on Mary Street. Michael was (and still is) my brother and the Viti home was my own; I walked in and out of their living room door without knocking, and a big part of my life was formed there. There is something about knowing that a Viti, any Viti, is in pain that strikes at the heart of me, and while I don't know you well enough, Chris, I want you to know how sorry I am for the sorrow you feel. I look at your son's face, Guy, and I see the picture of you in uniform in your father's living room. I remember what it felt like to walk in my second home everyday (as if your mother and father didn't have enough mouths to feed already). As I watched your family support one another at the wake yesterday, I remember with gratitude everything I always found so welcoming about your home and I know, Chris, exactly where your strength will come from in the days to come. I worked at Notre Dame during the years when the Salerno's passed through. I remember Jackie as a girl with a big smile who cared about her friendships. That was also true of Tricia, Nina, and Jimmy. I was touched yesterday to see how many of those high school friends are still around. It is a wonderful testament to the steadfast love your family shares, and it gives me hope that you have a solid support to rely on as you find your way through the most difficult of situations.
Life, as it sometimes does, has presented all of you, both families, with unspeakable loss. I hope the outpouring of love at the wake yesterday offers a measure of comfort. It is obvious to me that you will see each other through with love and consistency. Please count me among the many who will be thinking of and praying for all of you. Have confidence in the peace that Jackie and the baby have already entered into.
With much love,

I know you will not get this note for a while but I wanted you to know that my family and I are thinking of you. Please know that your pain is shared by all of those around you. You were a lucky man to have her in your life and she just as blessed. Your grace and dignity at the wake last night only solidified why she chose you. She is looking down on you so proudly that you were strong. Jackie will live on in the hearts and minds of all that loved her. You have married into an exceptional family, may you always remain close and comfort each other. The world was a brighter place with Jackie in it, she was a good friend. May she rest now and be at peace in the arms of the Lord. God Bless you, Jackie and Your little guy!*

“ God Bless You Precious Jackie and your Beloved Little One. My heart aches for your Mom and Dad, your Husband, Siblings and the countless others who loved you so dearly. Whatever it is that took you from this world Dear Heart; You were BEAUTIFUL in your time here, and your special beauty will live on in the hearts of many. I know that the PEACE of Christ has now embraced your soul in HIS Almighty Love and Grace. Live in HIS Light Sweetheart; and know how very Loved you are.

“ Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free!
I follow the plan God laid for me.
I saw His face, I heard His call,
I took His hand and left it all...
I could not stay another day,
To love, to laugh, to work or play;
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
And if my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss...
Ah yes, these things I, too, shall miss.
My life's been full, I've savoured much:
Good times, good friends, a loved-one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief—
Don't shorten yours with undue grief.
Be not burdened with tears of sorrow,
Enjoy the sunshine of the morrow.

Hey baby I miss you so very much. Your big smile your huge heart and your soft embrace. I will always remeber you for the beautiful lady you are I will never let you go from my life. 4 years ago you made me the happiest man ever and as you used to say to me. "It was forever" and you will be forever in my heart. What I would do to hear that laugh or even for you to tell me to hang up my jacket or as you put it "do something with this" I know your still with me in spirit and you are taking care of our little boy. Just know I am hear untill one day we meet again. I LOVE YOU with every ounce of love a man could have for his wife.

“ Guy and family, My heart goes out to you and your family during this difficult loss.

For every life has a purpose to fill, a purpose which us humans can seldom infer. But she was a gift from heaven, whose purpose was to make this world understand what love, friendship, goodness, and humbleness was all about. Goodness belongs to heaven, and she is watching all of you from there, bestowing her beautiful smile on all who knew and loved her.. May her soul rest in peace.

On behalf of the Padula Family (Lynda, Renata, Joey, Dennis II, and Peter) we extend our sincere condolences to you all at this very difficult time. Jackie was a beautiful girl as is your entire family. We have fond memories of spending time with all of you on Hammond Ave/Deerwood Rd many years ago. Having just suffered the loss of our Father Dennis Sr. just a few short weeks ago, we truly understand the horrible pain you are going through, so please know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers. We hope you find comfort in knowing Jackie is with God and will live on forever in your hearts. Love Always, The Padulas*
