

Mr. James Scalzo

August 13, 1964 - November 12, 2018

UTICA - Mr. James Scalzo, age 54 of Little Falls, went to heaven when he passed away on Monday, November 12, 2018.

Born in Utica on August 13, 1964, the son of Warren Mickle and the late Mary Dashnaw. James always held close to his heart the memory of his adoptive parents the Scalzo's who preceded him. He was a graduate of UFA. James was a very happy person who loved to sing Elvis songs and play his drums. He enjoyed following the band Classified and went everywhere they were playing. In fact, he built a special bond with lead vocalist Larry Desiato.

James is survived by his children, Bridget Scalzo, Christiana Scalzo, and James Scalzo, Jr.; his father and stepmother, Warren and Ruth Mickle; his siblings, Rose and Reginald Hardy, Christine Mickle, Karen and Wade Bell, Joe and Laura Mickel, Warren and Peggy Mickel, Bonnie and Scott Martin, and Christopher and Joelle Thayer; and his cousins, Izell Bembry and Rob and Tanya Linen. He also leaves his nieces and nephews, Angelica and Lee, Adam Jones, Victor Jones, Ardine and Victor Airmont, Shyanne and Tony Rodriguez, Eric Jasek, Ruth Jasek, Joe Mickle, Jr., Tony Roman, and Jordan Hardy.

Visitation will be held on Saturday from 3:00 – 5:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South Street corner of Hammond Ave. James' Celebration of Life will commence immediately upon conclusion of visitation, officiated by Pastor David Ossenfort. Interment in Forest Hill Cemetery will take place at the convenience of the family.

“ To the Scalzo Family! Jim was a jolly and a funny man. Everytime we came in contact he had a smile and something positive to say. Jim loved the lord he would often say, I want to go to heaven. I believe Jim is in the presence of the lord. To be absent from the body is to be present th lord. Jim loved his sister Chris! Family look to the heavens for all your strength.
