

Mr. James M. "Boo Boo" Winston, Jr.

August 20, 1977 - September 23, 2020

UTICA/LAS VEGAS, NV - Mr. James M. Winston, Jr. (affectionately known as Boo Boo) went into the loving arms of the Lord on Wednesday, September 23, 2020 when he passed away unexpectedly in his home in Las Vegas, Nevada. Born in Utica on August 20, 1977, James was the son of James "Jim", Sr. and Dawn (Rucker) Winston. He was a graduate of T.R. Proctor High School and continued his education at MVCC where he majored in Welding.

James had a passion for cars. He owned and operated Winston's Auto on Mortimer Street in Utica. He had a natural aptitude and a gifted mind in diagnosing and fixing any mechanical problem. He could listen to your car and tell you exactly what was wrong. He was always right! Boo Boo was a gentle giant, and he treated his customers with kindness. Caring about his community, he would often repair a vehicle at no cost if the owner didn't have the means. Recently, he traveled for work to various states, but his last years were spent working in Las Vegas with his mechanical skills.

James is survived by his parents, James Sr. and Dawn; his sons, James M. Winston III, and Christian James Winston; his sisters, Alicia Winston-Dix of Florida, Janelle Winston of New York City, Deanna Winston of Alabama, and Chavon Rucker of Buffalo; and his nephews, Mikel Dix and Jordyn Dix. James also had a special relationship with Braco Mujagic, who he felt was more of a brother than a friend. He is also survived by his godfather, Willie T. Barnes; his godson, Sammy Mujagic; little buddies, Adin, and Angel; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. James was predeceased by his maternal grandmother, Elizabeth Rucker; paternal grandparents, Fred and Olga Winston; his godmother, Bessie Tanner; aunts, Sharon Chastine, Gwendolyn Harper, and Carrie Rucker; and uncles, Johnnie Winston, and Ashby Vess. Visitation will be held Monday morning from 11:00-12:00 noon at the Eannace Funeral Home, 932 South St, corner of Hammond Ave. Due to current restrictions, we will be operating at a reduced occupancy. We ask for your patience as we try to accommodate those coming to support the Winston family. Face masks must be worn and contact tracing will be implemented. The family will honor Boo Boo's life in a private Home Going Service and Celebration of Life. Interment will take place in Forest Hill Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

Please take a moment to connect with James' family through the "Memories" section of his obituary. Our prayers go out to all as a sign of our continued support.

On James' graduation day, he rode up on Genesee Street bouncing in his custom 1964 Chevy Impala complete with hydraulics. He bounced the car so much that it split completely down the middle. He made a very late and memorable entrance!

A Special Thank You to the Andrews family of Las Vegas, Nevada. He loved you all!

The Winston family would like to thank everyone for their support, calls, texts, flowers and cards.

“ I met James when I was 17 years old in the summer of 2000, I met him on South St in Utica at his auto repair shop. I told him that I was looking for a car & I asked him if he could keep a eye out for a car for me and he said yes. I was with James from 2001-2010 we have our son Christian James together. Throughout our years together, I learned so much from James. James taught me how to ride a motorcycle, he taught me how to ride a snowmobile, but most important of all, James taught me patience. James has always been the kind & patient one. He would give you the shirt from off of his back, even when he didn't have a shirt to give. One of my favorite lines from James is “let me see what I can do”. James was always helping someone, and always assisting someone in need. Thats James nature, to help when you are able to. For the last 5 years while James has been in Nevada, James always made time for my sons. They would go to car shows, go kart racing & to arcades. A few weeks ago James took them to the Grand Canyon. James loved to work, James loved cars, & James loved his sons. James I will forever be proud of you.
I will forever miss my best friend of 19 years.
James rest in power King.....
Love, Christina, Christian & Angel

“ My heart breaks for the Winston family. I am so sorry to learn of the passing of BooBoo. My memories take me all the way back to our childhood on Howard Ave. I can remember being about 7/8 yrs old and I would be walking to girl scouts in my uniform and BooBoo would make fun of me in front of the other neighborhood kids (it was all in love). As we got older BooBoo would remind me of those times and apologize letting me know he really didn't mean to hurt my feelings. We were also in a few classes together in high school. He was so much bigger than everyone, but in reality he was just a gentle giant. He had a heart of gold and would do anything for his fellow classmates. His mom and dad did an amazing job of raising such a kind, loving, easy going, caring young man. BooBoo was always the comedian...You were guaranteed to laugh when he was around. I moved away from Utica in my early 20's, but when Facebook was introduced we reconnected and he was still the same funny BooBoo...Sending jokes, making jokes, and keeping me uplifted from many miles away. To be writing this is unbelievable. To the family, I am so sorry for your loss. I'm sure the community has so many amazing memories and funny stories to share about BooBoo and he will be deeply missed. S.I.P. dear friend... Your work here is done but your memories will last forever; well done my friend, well done!!! 🙏

“ I remember the first time I met boo. It was funny we were all supposed to go out to eat and Raymond stood us up so me and boo went and did our own thing. Lol we shared the same birthday August 20th we got a party bus for our birthday and turned up! It was lit we tore Vegas down lol. We went picking rocks finding fossils and quartz rocks. Boo took us out to the gold mine. We tried to find gold but weren't so lucky that day. He handed me his new hand gun I think it was a 9 and let me hold it in case any mountain lions came out we were prepared lol. It's too many memories to type but I'm glad I have them. He was truly a big brother when I needed advice I would call or text him and he would give me some sound advice. I appreciate that and appreciated him being there when I needed him he will truly be missed. He was a great humble sweet kind selfless beautiful spirit. Tell my grandma I said hi please. She'll definitely look out for you up there! See you when we get there. Love you forever! T

“ My name is Raymond Andrews Jr.

I knew Boo for 5 years here in Las Vegas. The Bible says “There is a friend that stays closer than a brother”, and I believe that was Boo. We met at a pet store I was managing. Every night Boo would leave Meineke Auto, and come help close the store. Out of the kindness of his heart he would help dress the cages, sweep, mop, anything. I would tell Boo “nah yo I got it” and he would just keep on going! Boo came every night, we began to become really close. We talked about life, goals, God, Boo would always talk about his family, he really had some big goals and it made me want more from life too. Boo was a good man, solid, A1, a true brother. Boo became family, he would even be at family parties without me! Boo was funny, he loved cars, dirt bikes, anything with a engine. He could shoot, he could cook, (man I’ll miss those seafood potatoes). He helped me through a lot, even when I was having issues in life Boo was like my big brother. He always had good advice, he was a mentor, a great father. I watched his eyes light up when he would talk about his sons, he loved his boys so much. My kids loved him too, they would climb all over him. He was a giant, a legend. Long live my brother! James Winston Jr. We will meet again!

Raymond Andrews - October 08, 2020 at 08:42 PM

“ I first met Boo through my son Raymond who love reptiles and so did boo, he met my son at a reptile store. So my son invited boo to my granddaughters birthday and at the party I talked to boo who said he didn't have any family here in Las Vegas and I said yes you do we will be your family. He has been a great part of our life and he came to everything birthdays, holidays and just because. Raymond and I love to go shooting with boo and we would shoot and talk about what upgrades we were going to do to our weapons. He was a on time guy, if you needed him he was there and always respectful. My family and I will greatly miss boo, we called him our second son. Much love Boo and I'll have a scotch for you. I know he came from a living family and I thank you all that we were able to be in his life. May God strengthen the family in this time.
