December 30, 1943 - June 15, 2010

Janet L. Johnson, age 66, of Utica, passed away on Tuesday, June 15, 2010 at the St. Luke's Home.

Born in Utica on December 30, 1943, Janet was the daughter of the late Vincent Johnson and Margaret D. Ford. She was raised and educated locally. She knew the love and friendship of Luis A. Rolon, her companion of 30 years, who passed away on July 2, 2002. Janet lived her life for her family, which was always her number one priority.

She is survived by her daughters, Sarah Williams, Shirley "Squirrels" Delano and fiancée Robert "Bo" Stratton, and Louise M. Rolon; and her son, Steven Moshier. Always close to her heart was the memory of her son, Luis A. Rolon, Jr. who preceded her in death on August 20, 1998. She also leaves many grandchildren and great-grandchildren; her sisters, Joyce, Joan, Jeanne, and Justine; many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins; her special companion, Ralph; and numerous dear friends, including Kathy Samarco. She was predeceased by her sister, Judith.

The family would like to thank Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc., the staff of the St. Luke's Nursing Home, and especially Janet's nephew, Troy and his fiancée Lori, who took great care of their Aunt Janet during her final years.

Visitation will be held Tuesday from 1:00-3:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Janet's funeral service and Celebration of Life which will commence on Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 at the funeral home

“ Just cant seem to accept the fact your gone..you were the glue to many of us and it seems as though some are falling apart. losing you isn't the worse thing I've gone through lately its watching those around me fall apart and hurt more each day. I wish I could stop thier pain.Mom's a wreck, family is at a distance ..I fear matt's never going to be the same. when i know we all wont but I know he's one that needed you the most! watch over him closely please. Tell mom its ok to let go.. I cant afford to lose my mom either. grandma I miss you and i replay over and over in my head how stupid of me not to be there when I had the chance but then i remember its because i hated seeing you in ur suffering,,,,and I needed you to be you! God how i wanted you to yell at me or tell me to go do something or anything like you would do..My grandmother passed away years ago..her shell was still here...only to make me hurt everytime I seen you trapped in that shell..It was your time to go..finally at peace released from the strings and wires and tubes that held you captive..free to run and laugh and hold your baby once more. to pet your Sheba, to yell at grampa, lol , to say hello to YOUR mother,, to see your sister Judy and hold your forever baby niece..to become the blue eyed angel that you are.. You are my Hero,only someone so strong as you could keep this family stuck,, I hope your at eternal peace and that you are watching over us...I love you gramma keep us save and help me stay strong.. Love forever ...me

“ To all family members and friends of Janet: I have known Janet since I was 8 years old--almost 47 years!!! She was ALWAYS kind, giving, caring and loving towards me. I loved her dearly!!! We had MANY good times together. Now she can rest--no pain, no worries, no cares, or earthly burdens!!! But rest assured that she will always be looking down upon all whom she loves and cares about!!! And I will never forget when she would refer to me as "Her other kid"!!! Rest in Heavenly Peace, Janet... Love, Deb Brown
