

Jean M. (Aliasso) Bucciero

November 27, 1930 - August 23, 2012

Mrs. Jean Marie (Aliasso) Bucciero, age 81, of Utica, passed away on Thursday, August 23, 2012 in the comfort and dignity of her home with her loving family by her side.

Born in Utica on November 27, 1930, Jean was the daughter of the late Louis and Fannie (Infusino) Aliasso. She was raised and educated locally, a graduate of T.R. Proctor Class of 1949. She furthered her business education, graduating from the Utica School of Commerce. On October 26, 1957 she married Thomas J. Bucciero with whom she shared a union of over 54 years. Together, they enjoyed a rewarding relationship blessed with many wonderful memories. Thomas cared for his beloved Jean throughout her illness with great devotion.

At one time, Jean held a position with the New York State Department of Labor as the Secretary to the Executive Officer. During this time she was proud to be engaged in the opening ceremony of the New York State Thruway. She later held numerous executive secretarial positions with various civic and municipal offices. Some years later she worked at Chicago Market, and was lastly employed by the Pyramid Company, the position from which she retired. Jean was blessed with an inner strength that made her the loving and caring person she was. She dedicated herself to her family and their success. She was ardently and actively involved in the lives of her children and grandchildren, and distance was no detour to her determination to be present at their activities, special occasions, and events. She always went the extra mile. Jean was very sociable and welcoming; she enjoyed having her friends and loved ones over for a cup of coffee. She rooted for the Syracuse University Basketball team and attended their games. During her spare time she found gratification in gardening and ceramics. In the past, she served as a den mother for the Cub Scouts. Jean was a woman of great faith and fidelity to her family and her Lord. She was a parishioner of St. Mary of Mt.

Carmel/Blessed Sacrament Parish.

Jean is survived by her husband, Thomas; her daughters and son-in-law, Tammy and Richard Maio of Kittery, ME, and Debi Bucciero of Utica who so lovingly cared for her mom day-to-day; her sons and daughters-in-law, Thomas J., Jr. and Carolyn Bucciero of Bolton, MA, and David L. and Kelley Bucciero of Hampton Falls, NH; and her grandchildren, Richard Maio Jr., Alecia Maio, Danielle Maio, Thomas Bucciero III, Jillian Bucciero, Jaclyn Bucciero, Lauren Bucciero, and Emily Bucciero. She also leaves many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, in-laws Delores and William B. Cahill, Sr. of New Hartford, and Rose Bucciero of Utica; and her adored canine companion, Jake.

The family commends the staff of R.C.I.L. and the many caregivers who offered their compassion and expertise while tending to Jean throughout her illness.

“ My sincerest condolences to the entire family. I just happened to run across Jean's obit as I was searching for my mother's 2008 obit. I am so sad for all of you at the loss of Jean. I remember her so well as our backyard neighbor. How many times we used to "cut through" to get from Hammond Ave to Greenview Ave. She was a warm woman and allowed us to live easily as children growing up in the "hood". Tom and Dave....my sincerest condolences even at this late date. Warmly, Leonarda Priore (Bronx, NY) formerly of Hammond Ave, Utica.
