

Jeanette (Bonacci) Beratta

March 10, 1937 - March 5, 2010

Mrs. Jeanette (Bonacci) Beratta, of Utica, was taken into heaven by Our Lady of the Rosary when she passed away peacefully at home on March 5, 2010 surrounded by her loving family.

Known for her sophistication and style, Jeanette enjoyed careers in both fashion and public relations while living in Syracuse and Rochester. She was a wonderful wife, mother, and devoted grandmother, lovingly known as “Dee” to her grandchildren. Jeanette also had an abiding love for animals.

Jeanette is survived by her husband of 51 years, Robert “Bob” Beratta; her daughters and son-in-law, Jeanine Beratta, and Melanie and Jeff Hanson; her grandchildren, Gabrielle and Jeffery Hanson; her sister, Roseann; her brothers, John and Gene; a special niece, Debbie and her husband, Tom; and her nephew, Gene and his wife, Joann.

In keeping with Jeanette’s wishes, there will be no public visitation. By family request, please omit floral offerings. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Jeanette’s Memorial Mass which will commence on Monday morning at 10:00 at Historic Old St. John’s Church. For those wishing to do so, please consider memorial donations in Jeanette’s honor to the Stevens Swan Humane Society; envelopes will be available at the service.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave.

“ Bob:

God has promised us Eternal Life. When here on Earth, we are eternal beings wrapped in mortal bodies. Our mortal bodies cause us all sorts of discomforts and conditions that we must fight.

Jeanette had been sick and struggling for a very long time. While God is concerned about what happens to our body, He is much more concerned about what happens with our soul. Once we have confessed faith in Jesus, it is then that the Holy Spirit comes to live within us. He is then busy protecting our soul.

I know Jeanette had the light of the Holy Spirit living within her. She will now receive a new body in eternity. No more suffering, ever!

Knowing any of this will not immediately give you any sense of peace. You still need to grieve as any human does. Your life will forever be changed.

I do pray that someday you can think back on what I said and find comfort in that.

God Bless you and your family.##imported-begin##Sheila Engell Archambeault##imported-end##
