

Jeanne M. Champion

December 30, 1952 - October 14, 2013

Jeanne M. Champion, age 60, passed away on Monday, October 14, 2013 at the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center with the love and support of her family.

Born in Little Falls, NY on December 30, 1952, Jeanne was the daughter of Margaret (Colella) Brewer and the late Robert Champion. She was raised and educated in Little Falls.

For a number of years, Jeanne held positions as a cashier at the Great American Food Store and Chicago Market. She was also the first woman in upstate New York to operate machinery at Special Metals. A loving and giving woman, Jeanne was a mentor and adviser to friends and loved ones, often lending a hand or a shoulder to cry on. Her life was focused on her family, and she enjoyed being together, especially at cookouts. Just seeing the happiness of others brought Jeanne much joy.

Jeanne is survived by her daughters and son-in-law, Pamora Champion, and Lydia and Andrew Thornton; her sons and daughter-in law, Kevin Stock, and Michael and Tiara Geigel; her 8 grandchildren, and her mother, Margaret. Also left to mourn her passing is her sister, AnnMarie "DeeDe" LaCelle; her brother, Robert Champion and his fiancée Virginia Jones; her niece, Aimee Champion; nephew, Chris Champion; and her friend, Judy. She was predeceased by her nephew, Robert Champion, Jr.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend her Memorial Service and Celebration of Life which will be held on Friday morning, October 25,

2013 at 11:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave., with Sister Elizabeth Giarrusso, CSJ, officiating.

“ I didn't have the opportunity to meet Jean. But through my sister Virginia I feel as though I knew her. Now God has called her home. No more pain and suffering. Robert you done a great job being there for her. Just be strong ,we all will have to travel that road. Just be ready when he call.Love you. Rosa J. Still, Greenville, S. C
