“ I miss you Dad. You are one of the strongest people I know. I could talk to you about anything without consequence. Just an unbiased response. I lost that source. Sometimes things get taken for granted. Just know you will be forever missed and loved RIP Dad.

“ John was one of a kind. His heart was big, his love for his family was strong. He made us laugh, feel protected and he loved unconditionally. My life changed when Johnny bought the house next to my mom and asked his dad to come and help him side it. We saw each other and it was literally love at first sight. I am so sorry that you've lost your brother, brother-in-law, father, 'papi', uncle, cousin and friend. I hope that happy memories help you through each day.

"I'll love you forever." Rest in peace John ❤️

“ Uncle John, I'm having trouble wrapping my head around you being gone. My tears flow every time I think about how our world will be without you. I will always have our memories of our childhood and how inseparable we were. You and I against All the boys in [garage] basketball. Nobody could beat us! Our trips from Utica to Rochester in Grampa's car and how we finally got him to go over the speed limit on the thruway and he got a ticket. Old man Sullivan and his PF fliers, Na Na getting his pants caught on the fence when he was chasing us. Your heart was bigger than most people knew. These are the memories I will carry with me for the rest of my life. I love you!
