“ My friend Cindy and I volunteer at CPV Rescue and Sanctuary in Clinton. We are a small no kill cat shelter. John called us every week and donated what ever he could to us. He promised us he would visit as soon as he was back home. We hadn't heard from him in a little over a week and got concerned. I tried messaging him but never heard back. We feared the worst. I finally found this today. We're both very sorry for your loss. Although we didn't know him that long, he definitely made a bright spot in our weeks. Much love, Mare and Cindy, CPV Rescue and Sanctuary
