

Joseph Louis Scalzo

June 2, 1954 - April 26, 2015

Joseph Louis Scalzo, age 60, passed away on Sunday, April 26, 2015 at the Faxton - St. Lukes Healthcare Center, finding peace and reuniting with lost loved ones.

Joe had a passion for radios, computers, and video games; was an avid bowler; and held a brief career as a marine plumber.

Joe is survived by his loving companion Jacqueline Ford, with whom he spent the last 20 years of his life; his brothers and sisters-in-law, Michael and Dawn Scalzo of Utica, and Saverio "Sam" and Margaret Allegro-Scalzo of FL; his step-sisters, Rosalie Anderson, and Anna Marie Catrombone, both of Utica; his nieces, and nephews especially Michael Salvatore Scalzo; great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and in-law, Jeanette Scalzo. Joey was predeceased by both of his parents, Salvatore P. Scalzo and Alice Scalzo, a sister, Lucy Deveans; and brothers, Salvatore P. Scalzo, Jr., and Vincent Scalzo.

The family would like to extend their gratitude to the staff of Faxton-St. Lukes Healthcare, especially Dr. Kashtanova and the kind and compassionate nurses at the dialysis unit.

Joe's family chose to commemorate his life in a private gathering.

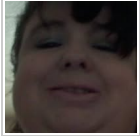

Arrangements have been entrusted to the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc.,
932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave.
