

Mrs. Josephine (D'Agostino) Terzo

March 13, 1924 - August 9, 2019

UTICA - Mrs. Josephine (D'Agostino) Terzo, age 95, went home to the Lord when she passed away on Friday, August 9, 2019 at the Sitrin Health Care Center with her loving family by her side.

Born in Utica on March 13, 1924, Josephine was the daughter of the late Giuseppe and Giacinta (Turchette) D'Agostino. She was raised and educated locally. On November 25, 1965 she was united in marriage to Joseph A. Terzo with whom she shared 33 years prior to his passing on August 8, 1999.

Josephine and Joe were deeply committed to one another and to their relationship.

Josephine retired from her job at UNIVAC in 1977 after 20 years of service. Whether at work or with family and friends, she was a loyal and trustworthy person. She welcomed people into her life and was willing to tend to their needs before her own. She was also a caregiver for her family. Josephine opened her home to her nieces and nephews, and with a special bond, love, guidance, and positive attitude, she assisted in raising and caring for Christina and Melissa Acquaviva, and Sarah Owen. She was a member of the North Utica Senior Center and was an avid bowler honored with the title of Queen of the Hill. A parishioner of St. Anthony & St. Agnes Church, she also volunteered her time as a food preparer for the annual St. Rosalia festival. Josephine had a spirituality that shined.

Josephine leaves behind many special nieces and nephews including Robert and Jessie Hanes, Jim and Dorothy Acquaviva, Mark Acquaviva, Sr., Diana

Owen, Rose Guido, Donald and Cathy Guido, Gregory and Leigh D'Agostino, Jerry and Mayme Fluharty, and Ronnie and Beth Zolocka; great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and many dear friends who blessed her life especially Linda Unser, and Pat and Rosemary Gumbs. She was predeceased by her brother and sister-in-law, Frank and Carmella D'Agostino; sisters and brothers-in-law, Rose and Frank S. Acquaviva, Anna and Flam Guido, and Mary D'Agostino; and her nephews, Deputy Chief William F. Acquaviva Sr./UFD; Richard A. Guido Sr., and John T. Owen; great-niece Christine (Guido) Carbone, and a great-nephew Michael Guido.

Visitation will be held on Saturday morning from 9-10 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc. Josephine's funeral service and Celebration of Life will commence on Saturday morning at 10:00 from the funeral home and at 11:00 at St. Anthony & St. Agnes Church where her Mass of Christian Burial will be offered. Interment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

“ The Terzo family welcomed Josephine with open arms when she married my Uncle Joey. We shared many years of special memories, throughout the years. She was loved by all. I want to send a special thank you to Barbara Acquaviva for her many years of devotion and love to Aunt Jo. Also let me mention a thank you to Mayme and Gerry Fluharty for always being there for her, when needed.

RIP Aunt Jo, you will be missed greatly. Love you!

“ It is with great sympathy and sadness that I express my feelings in the loss of Aunt Jo. There are many fond memories of her and Uncle Joe visiting with a box from Florentines or the Cafe. She will be remembered with fondness. As an aside, I would like to thank Mayme and Jerry Fluharty and Barbara D'Augustino for all you did during the past several years to make Aunt Jo's life easier. You all made sure that she had the quality of life that she deserved. God bless her, rest in peace, and know that you ar in the thoughts and prayers of many.

“ Dear Josephine.

One of your dearest friends for over 70 years is just saddened by your passing. Ermelinda Lewis (who is my mother) has known you forever! You met and worked together at Kenwell Sporting Goods when you's were only 18 years old. Then you and my Mom worked at Univac together also. It was a lasting friendship made. I remember you and Joe coming over to our house all the time and I am now 65 years old!! I have known you my whole life and I am happy I got to talk to you just 2 months ago. We had a great conversation on the phone and my Mom visited you just like the week before. Just want you to know Jo that you meant so much to our family! You where there for all the happy times and there for us in our very sad times. My Mother is sad that you are not with us now, but you are now with Joe who you loved dearly. Rest in peace our dear friend. Love Ermelinda and all the Lewis family

“ Must have been a typo so I'd like to thank Barbara Acquaviva, surviving wife of William Acquaviva who watched over Aunt Jo as a promise to him. She cared deeply for Aunt Jo and they were great casino buddies. AJ loved you like a daughter as she told me many times. Thank you Barb for always caring for everyone around you.
