

Joseph L. "Joe" LoParco

October 4, 1948 - April 10, 2010

Mr. Joseph L. "Joe" LoParco, age 61, of New Hartford, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, April 10, 2010 at the Faxton-St. Luke's Healthcare Center.

Born in Utica on October 4, 1948, Joe was the son of the late Joseph and Carmella (Caramadre) LoParco. He was raised and educated in New Hartford and continued his education at Parsons College in Iowa where he graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in business.

At one time, Joe was involved in the family business, the Oneida Meat Market. He was also employed by various businesses in the auto industry. He was endowed with an amazing wit, a broad base of knowledge, and a sharp sense of humor that made everyone admire him. He held a passion for cars which led him to his chosen profession in the automotive field for which he was well suited.

Joe is survived by his daughter, Andrea LoParco; and his grandson, D'Marco Smith, both of Utica. Survivors also include his sisters and brothers-in-law, Gail and Mark Staib of Bradenton, FL, and Deborah "Debbie" and Craig Smith of Sarasota, FL; his nieces and nephews, including Mark J. Staib, Jennifer and Doug Oliver, Jessica Smith, Courtney Smith, and Craig Smith, Jr.; his aunts, uncles, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and friend, Rodney Castelletti.

Visitation will be held Friday from 4:00-6:00 at the Eannace Funeral Home, Inc., 932 South St., corner of Hammond Ave. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Joe's funeral service and Celebration of Life which will commence on Saturday morning at 11:00 at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes where his Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. Inurnment will take place in Calvary Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

“ I was very sorry to hear about Joe. We were planning to get married in 1982 but it didn't work out. I have thought of him often over the years and always hoped his life was full and happy. We used to have a lot of fun together. I know he will be missed.
