

Joshian Joel "Cuquito" Mejias

April 18, 1980 - July 27, 2013

Joshian Joel "Cuquito" Mejias, age 33, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, July 27, 2013 in the comfort of his home.

Born in Ponce, Puerto Rico on April 18, 1980, Joshian was the son of Angel and Maria (Acevedo) Mejias. He was raised and educated in Ponce and in Utica. He shared a loving relationship with his fiancée, Shannon Styles. An active outdoorsman, Cuquito engaged in farm work, cared for small animals, and tended to his garden. He held a position most recently as a mechanic with the Nirvana Water Company. He was industrious and steadfast at his work and entertaining and inspirational at home where he cherished his loving daughters. In his spare time, Cuquito reveled in singing and dancing to rap music.

Cuquito is survived by his fiancée, Shannon; his daughters, Sophia Mejias, and Kimberly Mejias; his father, Angel Mejias; his mother, Maria Acevedo; his siblings, Omar Mejias, Legna Mejias, Jomar Mejias, Christian Mejias, and twins Tania S. Mejias, and Dania Mejias. He also leaves his grandmother, Ramonita Montero; his aunt, Arlene Mejias; many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and friend, Wilfredo "Pancho" Muniz.

The family is grateful for the response and efforts of the Prospect Volunteer Rescuers and First Responders, and to all family members and friends who have been close by during this difficult time.
