

Krystle Elizabeth DeBuono

October 4, 1982 - January 2, 2012

Krystle Elizabeth DeBuono, age 29, of Utica, passed away after a courageous battle with cancer on Monday, January 2, 2012 in the comfort of her home with her loving family by her side.

Born in Utica on October 4, 1982, Krystle was the daughter of Cynthia (Trivieri) Riggles and Paul DeBuono. She was also blessed with the loving guidance of her "Pops" Patrick Riggles. She was raised and educated in Utica, a graduate of T.R. Proctor High School Class of 2000. Krystle was an intelligent young lady and she furthered her studies at M.V.C.C. receiving an Associates Degree in Business, and then attended SUNY Institute of Technology where she earned a Bachelors Degree in Business Management. She was currently studying in the field of Health Service Management. Krystle held a position at the YWCA as a payroll benefits specialist until her illness. Whether at work or interacting with the world, she was selfless, compassionate, full of integrity, and graceful. She had a God-given keen mind and sharp wit and will affectionately be remembered for her beautiful smile and irrepressible spirit. She was always there for the people she loved no matter how busy she was and she always remembered the many special events of her family and friends. Above all, she was a gifted mother offering her love and devotion to her precious little Kloe, lovingly known as "Boo Boo" or "Klo Klo" and she was proud of her Saturday morning dates with her daughter. As a daughter, Krystle was loving and thoughtful and held an unconditional love for her family. As a big sister, she often offered care giving responsibilities. She had a great knack for organization and event planning, and loved shopping and traveling on wine tours in North Carolina with her family. She was a great cook and was fondly referred to as the “sauce snob” as a testament to her savory sauce. She also had an inclination for stiletto shoes. She was a communicant of the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes. Krystle is survived by her companion, Kevin Kiersnowski; her 3-year-old daughter, Kloe Reese; her mother Cynthia Riggles, her father Paul DeBuono and step-mother Kim DeBuono; "Pops" Patrick Riggles; grandmother Margaret “GG” Trivieri; grandfather Lawrence A. Trivieri; and grandfather Vincent “Grandpa Vinnie” DeBuono. Also left to mourn her passing are her brothers, Brandan DeBuono, Collin Riggles, and sister Nicole DeBuono; her godchildren, Ceci, and Rylan; a host of many aunts, uncles, and cousins, especially acknowledging her cousins Sonya Piersma, Alyssa Sealock, and Bryan Herman; and her special friends, Amanda Zupancic, Carissa Asaro, Kelly Bell, Stefanie Dorozynski, and Lisa Roser – her fearsome fivesome. She was predeceased by her grandmother, Pauline DeBuono, her aunt, Andrea Herman and special family friend, Kenneth Drake.

The family wishes to acknowledge on Krystle’s behalf the many acts of kindness, love, and support of the many friends, family, and the community who contributed to her benefit Kure for Krystle. Also, gratitude is offered to neurosurgeon Dr. Mark Smith; oncologist Dr. Manzurul Sikder; and a special thanks to the doctors, nurses, and staff of Massachusetts General for their care and professionalism.

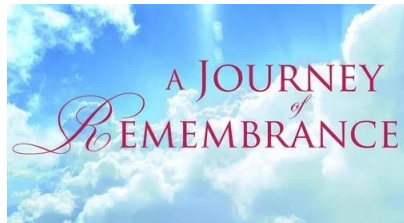

Family and friends are respectfully invited to attend her Celebration of Life which will commence on Saturday morning at 11:00 at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes where her Memorial Mass will be offered by Rev. Joseph Salerno. The family will receive visitors at the conclusion of the Mass. Those wishing to express an act of kindness in lieu of flowers may make a donation to the St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital or the AstraZeneca Hope Lodge in Boston; envelopes will be available at the church service.

“Krystle, we love you to the moon and back”.

“ Krystle, I am honored and lucky to have been able to call you one of my best friends. You are thoughtful, kind, generous, and loving. You have always been there for me and I will miss being able to pick up the phone and call you, or pass you driving by me each morning. I will miss your laugh and beautiful smile. Spending time with the girls will never be the same, we will be one short. I am so proud of the strength, courage, and positive attitude you have showed during this time, you have truly amazed me. I have learned so many lessons from you these past 5 months. I truly believe that "God breaks our hearts to prove he only takes the best". You will always be my angel, watching over us, guiding us, and protecting our babies. I promise that we will always be there for Kloe and share our wonderful memories of you with her. I love you and miss you dearly. See you later my friend.....xoxoxoxoxo

“ I am so glad I was able to see you in December and talk to you! You are a hero in my eyes. You are an inspiration to me in many ways and you have made me realize so much--from the start to the end--you were a fighter and remained as positive as you could. There was so much I wanted to say to you but didn't and I so wish I did--but I take comfort in knowing when I pray--you will hear me and I can tell you all the things I wanted to tell you. Your memory and smile will be carried on through your daughter--I know you will be watching over her and protecting her. You will always be alive through her. I hope to see her soon. Rest peacefully--no more pain Krystle--no more hard times. You are an amazing person!

“ And in the end, the love you take is equal to the love you make...

Krystle,

I have so many great memories with you in them and I'll cherish them always. The world and all those who knew you are truly better for it. I'm so glad we got to spend some time together when you were in Boston. Even then your spirit was not diminished; your smile, spunk and certainly your fight were ever present. I remember being so proud of you then, as I am of you now. I can't believe you're gone, though I know that's not completely true. I'll be seeing you again someday, friend. Until then, watch over us all as I know you will. We'll think of you often and always remember the good times we shared. Rest peacefully.

*Love,
Meg*

“ Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote: "To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and to endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded." Nobody epitomizes that definition of a successful life better than Krystle. She excelled in all the wonderful roles she had in this life, and for me especially as my beloved niece. The Light and love she brought to this world will never be extinguished. “ To Krystle's Family and Kevin,
I never had the pleasure and privilege to meet Krystle, but my wife, Magda, was friends with Krystle and spoke of her often as a warm, kind, giving, intelligent woman who loved her daughter and family with great passion and devotion. It is my loss to have not been able to meet and know Krystle, but her awe inspiring strength is something legends are made of. We send our deepest condolences and sympathies to Krystle, Kevin, Kloe, and all of Krystle's family and friends. Tragic circumstances and an unjust disease robbed Krystle of the long and productive life she was on the path to live, but in her all too short time spent among us her influence was obvious even to those who didn't know her personally, such as myself. We wish all those who grieve and mourn her passing, a quick recovery of the soul and finding moments of Krystle in your memory to cherish along with reasons to smile and hold her close in your hearts.....wishing all those in suffering peace during these grieving times....

Shortly before you got sick, we had a heart to heart talk about a problem we were both facing. I'm so glad I could talk with you and share stories. I'm glad we reconnected. You always were the sweetest friend and everyone will agree you never altered from our school days to adulthood. I'm happy your pain free, but you will be missed more than you can imagine.*

To Kevin, Kloe, & Krystle's family My heart is breaking for you all. I can't even begin to understand how you feel. I know how heavy my heart is and know that yours is even heavier. I share this poem with you that I wrote for Krystle. God Bless you all and I hope you find the strength in your memories and in precious Kloe.

*We all wanted a miracle
We prayed it would come,
But god needed an Angel
And he called upon the sweetest one*

*You taught us all the meaning
Of what it is to love,
We know that you are smiling
From Heaven up above*

*As you look down upon us,
Know our tears won't last long
Because Dear Krystle, we learned
From you the true meaning of strong*

*It would take a million words
To describe the person that you were,
You lite up every room
Even when fighting for a cure*

You left behind a legacy

*That's impossible to replace
But inside sweet little Kloe
Will be your elegance and grace*

*She will carry on your memory
And we will all help her through,
For the world is and always will be
A better place because of you.*

*We will not say Goodbye,
Instead it's until we see you again
I leave saying Thank you
For allowing us to be your friend*

Krystle I know the suffering is over for you and I'm glad....but not having you here it alot to take in. Please watch over us all...we will be strong just as you were...you taught us that!

To Krystle's family- I can't imagine what you all are going through....my thoughts and prayers are with all of you. She was an amazing and strong woman! I will hold her both in thoughts and memories always. God Bless!

“ My dear Krystle was the most amazing person, friend, and mother I've ever met in my lifetime . She an I have 15years of memories together. I am devastated that Cancer took her away from us to soon, but still grateful for our times together and having someone so wonderful in my life. She played such an important role in my life, and her courageously brave fight will forever inspire me!
I will ALWAYS LOVE you Krystle, and forever keep you in my heart.

“ I know Krystle is smiling down at all of us from Heaven. We lost a wonderful person and a great friend, but have gained another angel to guide us and watch over us.
